West Concerned Over Incident

Red German Police Shoot Up U.S. Military Vehicle

BERLIN (AP) — East German police shot up a khaki-colored U.S. mission military car this week, and Western officials are concerned about what may be behind the incident.

It was the second time this month the East Germans have fired on an automobile belonging to a Western Allied liaison mission attached to Soviet headquarters at Potsdam.

The latest incident occurred Tuesday near Gotha, an East German town about 150 miles southwest of Berlin, but was not disclosed until Thursday night. No one was hurt.

An East German patrol stopped the American staff car, which was carrying a major and a driver on an official mission. The major said the East Germans had no right to stop him and demanded to see a Soviet officer.

The police squad leader said, "We are in charge here."

The U.S. officer repeated his demand and time was spent in argument. Finally, when no Soviet officer appeared, the major gave his driver orders to drive on.

East German police opened fire with a submachine gun. Bullets punctured a tire and riddled the trunk without hitting the Americans.

After some miles the two Americans stopped to fix the tire and asked an East German for assistance. East German police soon caught up, however, and arrested the East German.

A message to U.S. liaison headquarters at Potsdam resulted in another American staff car arriving to help.

U.S. officials said no further information could be given out because of action in progress, but it was reported U.S. military officials were making a strong protest to Soviet authorities.

East German border guards fired on a British military vehicle just outside Berlin on March 10, seriously wounding the driver. The Soviets have not yet replied to a British protest.

The United States, Britain and France each have liaison missions at Soviet headquarters in Potsdam, and in turn the Soviets have missions at American, British and French headquarters in West Germany.

The Western staff cars, identified by big plates in Russian, freely roam East German territory normally off limits to Westerners.

The East German regime has hurled accusations of espionage at the military missions. Red boss Walter Ulbricht appeared at a news conference in 1960 loaded down with maps and photographs he claimed were aggressive war plans captured from American and British liaison officers.

He demanded that they be thrown out of East Germany. The Soviets did not follow through. They also have three missions in West Germany, attached to the U.S., British and French military headquarters there.

It is the only existing East-West system of mutual inspection. Although the inspection is rather superficial, it is nonetheless something of a safeguard against surprise attack on German soil.

It's a system that has been tolerated by the Soviets and the three Western powers for 17 years. Apparently both sides valued it so much they were reluctant to end it.

Now the East Germans are shooting at the Western staff cars.

Boyd Given Sentence Of 1-20 Years

Sheriff To Take Slayer To Prison During Next Week

William P. Boyd Jr., 23-year-old city man found guilty of manslaughter in the slaying of his wife, Nancy Lee Chandler Boyd, will be conveyed to the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus next week to begin serving a 1-20 year term to which he was sentenced Thursday afternoon.

Boyd, found guilty Wednesday by a Common Pleas Court Jury of 10 women and two men, appeared in regulation County Jail white coveralls before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who passed sentence.

The former pottery worker and construction laborer had been charged with first degree murder in the death of his 18-year-old estranged wife at whom he hurled an auto jack handle, then beat and finally shot in the head near Beaver Creek Nov. 5.

The body was discovered Nov 15, and Boyd admitted the slaying Nov. 21 following a lie detector test.

Atty. Robert Kapp and Atty. Ben Berman, court-appointed defense counsel, advised Judge Buzzard yesterday Boyd would waive his right to a three-day period for filing for a new trial and asked for immediate sentencing.

Judge Buzzard asked the attorneys and Boyd if there was any preference as to whether he was sent to the penitentiary or to a reformatory. They replied they preferred a reformatory if it did not effect his chances for parole.

Under the conviction for manslaughter, Boyd will be eligible for parole after a year.

Judge Buzzard said he believed trial testimony showed that Boyd had been convicted of a felony. Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said he had been charged in Beaver County for arson and burglary, but the arson charge was dropped and he pleaded guilty to the burglary and was fined $100 and costs.

Judge Buzzard questioned the attorneys on the degree of burglary, but neither side knew, since the fine was only $100 and costs.

Boyd was then asked to rise, and Judge Buzzard said, "You have waived your three days to file for a new trial and request immediate sentence. Is that your wish?"

"Yes," said Boyd.

"Do you know why the sentence of this court should not be pronounced against you?"

"No" said Boyd.

"It is then the sentence of this court that you be confined to the

Arranging New Series, He Claims

Clash Takes Place At Geneva Meeting On Disarmament

GENEVA (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk accused the Soviet Union today of blocking a nuclear test ban treaty while presumably planning a new series of atomic weapon explosions.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko sharply denied the charge and blamed the United States for the failure to reach agreement on a test ban.

The clash came in the 17-nation disarmament conference when the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union reported collapse of their efforts to start new negotiations on a test ban treaty.

Gromyko said the United States is to blame for the failure because it has scheduled a new series of atmospheric nuclear tests and and does not want a test prohibition.

Rusk said President Kennedy had emphasized the United States would stop all tests if the Soviet Union would sign a treaty with effective controls against cheating. Kennedy has ordered the tests to start in late April unless such a treaty is signed.

British Foreign Secretary Lord Home said the Western powers are prepared to work out a control system on the most objective scientific basis possible. Home promised minimum controls to Gromyko earlier in the week but Gromyko rejected any kind of international controls which would put foreign observers inside the Soviet Union.

Gromyko renewed the Soviet charge that the West wants to set up an espionage system. He brushed aside Rusk's charge of new Soviet test plans by saying it was a pretext to cover known American test plans.

Rusk said the Russians three to four years ago had approved scientific plans for international inspection to police a test ban. The ban is no less urgent now than it was in 1958, he said. He declared the Soviet spy charge had no rational basis because the proposed inspection system could not be used that way.

Rusk spoke from a prepared text. Gromyko replied extemporaneously. An informant said he accused the United States of an aggressive act in deciding to resume testing in the atmosphere. He denied the Soviet Union had broken a moratorium when it started its series of about 50 tests last September. There was no moratorium in existence then, Gromyko said.

Trailer Truck Rams Pole As Cargo Shifts

Occupants Unhurt In Multiple Crash On District Road

A semi-trailer truck was extensively damaged when it rammed a power pole on Route 30 at Cannons Mills late Thursday night, and two trucks and two autos were damaged in a multiple mishap along the Smiths Ferry-Calcutta Rd. yesterday.

No one was injured, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

The rig driven south by Charles Ernest Blosser, 26, of 1043 Main St., Wellsville, veered off the road about 11:30 p.m. after the load apparently shifted, officers said.

The truck went onto the right berm, a spring shackle broke and it hit the double pole structure of the Ohio Power Co., effecting a fuse which blew and cut service briefly to three or four homes.

The right side of the rig was heavily damaged, the patrol said.

Yesterday afternoon at 2, a car driven by Richard Young, 18, of R.D. 1 hit the rear of a stopped laundry truck operated by Tony Robert Bazidlo, 36, of 523 E. 3rd St., about a mile east of Calcutta.

The laundry truck, owned by the Patterson & Wetzel Dry Cleaning Co., was knocked into an Ohio Power truck parked off the roadway. It was operated by Richard Martin, 31, of 744 Avondale St.

The rear of Young's car skidded around, and collided with an oncoming auto operated by John J. Vishak Jr., 43, of R.D. 1.

Vishak's car received minor damage, while the other vehicles had moderate damage, officers said.

Young was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance, and Bazidlo, who had halted to ask for directions, was cited for parking on the highway, the patrol said.

All-Out Drive Planned For Voter Signup

The County Election Board today announced plans for an all-out drive to register unqualified East Liverpool voters for the May 8 primaries before the deadline Wednesday night at 9.

The board's office on W. 6th St., opposite City Hall, will maintain a continuous schedule from 9 a.m. to 9 p. m. Monday through Wednesday to give unqualified electors every opportunity to register, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, pointed out. The staff's lunch and dinner hours will be staggered in order to keep the office open continually, he said.

Branch registration offices will operate Wednesday in each of the three major outlying residential areas. Located in the Pleasant Heights School, the North Side Fire Station and the Louis-James Store on Mulberry St., the branch offices will be open from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. and from 4 to 9 p.m.

A registrar from each major party will be assigned to each field registration office. O'Hanlon emphasized the North Side, East End and Pleasant Heights offices will be open only on Wednesday.

Despite an all-out campaign launched several weeks ago, voter registration has been "atrociously slow — the slowest I've ever seen," the veteran clerk commented. Unless there is a last-minute rush, the new registrations will not overcome the losses at the end of 1961, when the board canceled the enrollment of persons who had not voted at least once in the preceding two years, O'Hanlon declared.

Meanwhile, a statewide order from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown has halted work on printing the major Republican ballot for the primaries. Brown issued the order because of an action filed in the State Supreme Court by John H. Ferguson, whose GOP candidacy for state treasurer was ruled out by the secretary of state.

Ferguson seeks a court order directing Brown to restore his name to the ballot. The secretary

Postal Needs For East End Will Be Aired

Conference Slated On Possibilities Of New Postal Building

W. J. Rahter of Cincinnati, regional director of the Post Office Department, and other postal officials are scheduled to confer Monday night at 8 at the Travelers Hotel with Councilman Floyd Murray of the First Ward and Democratic party officials on the need for a new Post Office building in East End.

Murray said Rahter's trip here was arranged through Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman, and Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, Democratic state central committeeman and a member of the congressman's staff. James V. Flasco, city Democratic chairman, also is scheduled to attend.

Murray pointed out the Station A Post Office has been in inadequate quarters in a former storeroom on Mulberry St. since moving out of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association Building on Pennsylvania Ave. over a year ago.

He said he will urge construction of a new East End Post Office, if possible, or leasing of more adequate quarters. One of the biggest drawbacks in the present location is lack of adequate parking space for patrons, he said.

The Post Office vacated the financial concern's quarters because First Federal was beginning an expansion and modernization program under which it occupied the entire building. Formerly, the Post Office and the financial institution divided the floor space about equally.

Murray said he has been working for three months to arrange a conference on the need for new postal quarters. Rahter, a Wellsville native, has jurisdiction over a large segment of Postal Department affairs, including Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia.

Murray urged interested residents of East End to attend the meeting to help emphasize the need for adequate postal facilities in the First Ward.

Wellsville Girl, 6, Darts In Truck Path

A 6-year-old Wellsville girl is in "satisfactory" condition today in City Hospital with injuries suffered when struck by a van - type truck in Wellsville Thursday night at 7.

Diane Fickle, daughter of Robert Fickle, 985 Main St., suffered abrasions of the left forehead and face and contusions of the lip, left knee and left hand.

Wellsville police said she darted from an alley into the path of the truck operated by David C. Stanley, 54, of Richmond R. D. 1.

The truck was east - bound on Main St. near 9th St. at about 15 miles per hour, and police said skid marks measured less than a foot.

Jail Population Up

LISBON—The Columbiana County Jail is about to bulge at the seams — there are 60 prisoners for a new high. The previous high was the 58 of Dec. 8, 1960, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan.

Council Asked To Avoid New Midland Tax

Steel Union's Head Urges No Income, Wage Levy Be Used

In the wake of the invalidation of Midland's occupation tax, Councilman Joseph D'Alesio, who also is president of Steelworkers Local 1212, urged the borough's Council Thursday night "not to consider as an alternative an earned income tax or wage tax."

"It will be a catastrophe if a wage tax is recommended since Pennsylvania has no reciprocal agreement with Ohio or West Virginia," he said.

D'Alesio said he hopes the borough solicitor "can find ways of not going too deep in the taxpayers' pockets."

The Pennsylvania Superior Court at Philadelphia Thursday ruled out Midland's $10 a year occupation tax on residents and non-residents employed in the borough.

The opinion followed an appeal by five non-resident employes of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

The tax was first enacted in February 1961 and re-enacted this January. As a matter of routine

Union, Firms Join To Fight Cut In Tariff

Both labor and management in the pottery industry will be represented at hearings Tuesday before the House Ways and Means Committee, arguing against a four-year renewal of the Reciprocal Trade Act and a further cut in tariffs.

E. L. Wheatley, president, will testify for the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters. The U.S. Potters Association will be represented by Everson Hall, chairman of its foreign trade committee and vice president of the Hall China Co.

In addition, the heads of two local unions in the IBOP are scheduled to attend the hearings. They are E. C. Armstrong, president of Local 124, decorators and decorating kilnmen, and Edward Cranston, president of Local 9, kilnmen.

The present trade act expires in June. The administration's proposal to extend the agreement, now before Congress, would give the President the right to make further reductions in tariffs on imports, including ceramic products.

Both the union and industry representatives are expected to base their arguments on the low labor rates paid in foreign potteries and cite the number of American ceramic plants that have been forced to close since the end of World War II, resulting in loss of thousands of jobs.

The IBOP urged its members throughout the U.S. to write to their senators and congressmen, citing the industry's plight and asking "a fair and just tariff" on ceramic imports.

Holdup Probe Pushed

LISBON — Sheriff's deputies today are continuing a check of license numbers in an effort to trace a bandit who obtained $55 Wednesday night in a holdup at Ferguson's Market on Route 7 near Columbiana. Two youths who saw the stickup man flee in a 1953 Oldsmobile furnished authorities with a license number, but deputies said it apparently was incorrect.

Midland Cuts $16,014 From Budget Of '62

$392,467 Cleared By Councilmen For Year's Operations

Midland Council Thursday night adopted a 1962 budget of $392,467.13, a decrease of $16,014.56 from last year's $408,481.59. Most services were up some from last year.

Taxes for the new budget were adopted earlier. Thirteen mills on real estate was approved in February—9½ for general borough purposes and 3½ for debt retirement.

Millage had stood at 16 mills from 1957 until last year when it was cut to 13. The $10 occupation tax re-enacted in February has been ruled invalid and the borough now must find some other source of revenue.

Estimated receipts include cash and securities for appropriations, $5,048.33; current tax levy, $238,739.20; taxes of prior years, $10,-

Study To Cover 5 Points

Union Announces Details In Pottery Plants' Survey

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today revealed the scope of a $20,000 contract which it has signed jointly with five chinaware manufacturers calling for an engineering study that will suggest ways of modernizing the plants and increasing their efficiency.

The IBOP said the contract with Anderson-Nichols & Co., Inc., of Boston will cover these five points: Material handling, layout, methods improvement, production planning and inventory controls, and foremen's supervision. It's the first agreement of its type worked out by American industry and labor, the union added.

The chinaware firms already have a common contract with the IBOP on wages and working conditions. They are: Sterling China Co. of Wellsville, Buffalo China, Inc., of Buffalo, N. Y., Jackson China Co. of Falls Creek, Pa., Walker China Co. of Bedford and Mayer China Co. of Beaver Falls. The firms specialize in so-called hotel and restaurant ware, but some also produce fine china for household use.

The IBOP said it feels the engineering survey will be particularly helpful in initiating changes that will aid the companies in meeting competition from abroad.

The union emphasized that it will not accept any recommendations that will involve "reductions in wages, earnings, fringes or any

23,000 Already Treated

Goal Of 60,000 Doses Set In Saturday Polio Clinics

Directors of Columbiana County's oral polio vaccine clinics hope to administer the Sabin dosage to some 60,000 adults and youngsters Saturday.

Dr. Leonard Pritchard of Columbiana, chairman of the clinic program, said he hopes to triple the turnout of 23,000 in Wednesday's clinics.

With the original aim of inoculating over 90 per cent of the county's 106,000 population, the participation Wednesday was described as "only fair."

However, Pritchard said it hoped that there will be a much larger turnout for tomorrow's clinics because of the weekend.

Dr. Pritchard and other physicians in the Columbiana County Medical Society, sponsoring the program, urged everyone—adults especially—to obtain the dosage which costs only 50 cents or is free to those unable to pay.

The vaccine offered Wednesday and tomorrow provides immunization against Type I polio virus. Clinics planned next month and later this year will provide immunization against Type II and Type III polio.

Clinics will be open tomorrow from 1 to 7 p.m. or later, as long as people are attending.

Residents of Chester and Newell areas as well as Pennsylvanians may obtain the vaccine.

The dosage is composed of a few drops of the live virus vac-

All-Out Drive Planned For Voter Signup

The County Election Board today announced plans for an all-out drive to register unqualified East Liverpool voters for the May 8 primaries before the deadline Wednesday night at 9.

Murray said he has been working for three months to arrange a conference on the need for new postal quarters. Rahter, a Wellsville native, has jurisdiction over a large segment of Postal Department affairs, including Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia.

Murray urged interested residents of East End to attend the meeting to help emphasize the need for adequate postal facilities in the First Ward.

The truck was east - bound on Main St. near 9th St. at about 15 miles per hour, and police said skid marks measured less than a foot.

Jail Population Up

LISBON—The Columbiana County Jail is about to bulge at the seams — there are 60 prisoners for a new high. The previous high was the 58 of Dec. 8, 1960, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan.

Council Asked To Avoid New Midland Tax

Steel Union's Head Urges No Income, Wage Levy Be Used

In the wake of the invalidation of Midland's occupation tax, Councilman Joseph D'Alesio, who also is president of Steelworkers Local 1212, urged the borough's Council Thursday night "not to consider as an alternative an earned income tax or wage tax."

"It will be a catastrophe if a wage tax is recommended since Pennsylvania has no reciprocal agreement with Ohio or West Virginia," he said.

D'Alesio said he hopes the borough solicitor "can find ways of not going too deep in the taxpayers' pockets."

The Pennsylvania Superior Court at Philadelphia Thursday ruled out Midland's $10 a year occupation tax on residents and non-residents employed in the borough.

The opinion followed an appeal by five non-resident employes of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

The tax was first enacted in February 1961 and re-enacted this January. As a matter of routine

Union, Firms Join To Fight Cut In Tariff

Both labor and management in the pottery industry will be represented at hearings Tuesday before the House Ways and Means Committee, arguing against a four-year renewal of the Reciprocal Trade Act and a further cut in tariffs.

E. L. Wheatley, president, will testify for the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters. The U.S. Potters Association will be represented by Everson Hall, chairman of its foreign trade committee and vice president of the Hall China Co.

In addition, the heads of two local unions in the IBOP are scheduled to attend the hearings. They are E. C. Armstrong, president of Local 124, decorators and decorating kilnmen, and Edward Cranston, president of Local 9, kilnmen.

The present trade act expires in June. The administration's proposal to extend the agreement, now before Congress, would give the President the right to make further reductions in tariffs on imports, including ceramic products.

Both the union and industry representatives are expected to base their arguments on the low labor rates paid in foreign potteries and cite the number of American ceramic plants that have been forced to close since the end of World War II, resulting in loss of thousands of jobs.

The IBOP urged its members throughout the U.S. to write to their senators and congressmen, citing the industry's plight and asking "a fair and just tariff" on ceramic imports.

Holdup Probe Pushed

LISBON — Sheriff's deputies today are continuing a check of license numbers in an effort to trace a bandit who obtained $55 Wednesday night in a holdup at Ferguson's Market on Route 7 near Columbiana. Two youths who saw the stickup man flee in a 1953 Oldsmobile furnished authorities with a license number, but deputies said it apparently was incorrect.

Midland Cuts $16,014 From Budget Of '62

$392,467 Cleared By Councilmen For Year's Operations

Midland Council Thursday night adopted a 1962 budget of $392,467.13, a decrease of $16,014.56 from last year's $408,481.59. Most services were up some from last year.

Taxes for the new budget were adopted earlier. Thirteen mills on real estate was approved in February—9½ for general borough purposes and 3½ for debt retirement.

Millage had stood at 16 mills from 1957 until last year when it was cut to 13. The $10 occupation tax re-enacted in February has been ruled invalid and the borough now must find some other source of revenue.

Estimated receipts include cash and securities for appropriations, $5,048.33; current tax levy, $238,739.20; taxes of prior years, $10,-

Study To Cover 5 Points

Union Announces Details In Pottery Plants' Survey

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today revealed the scope of a $20,000 contract which it has signed jointly with five chinaware manufacturers calling for an engineering study that will suggest ways of modernizing the plants and increasing their efficiency.

The IBOP said the contract with Anderson-Nichols & Co., Inc., of Boston will cover these five points: Material handling, layout, methods improvement, production planning and inventory controls, and foremen's supervision. It's the first agreement of its type worked out by American industry and labor, the union added.

The chinaware firms already have a common contract with the IBOP on wages and working conditions. They are: Sterling China Co. of Wellsville, Buffalo China, Inc., of Buffalo, N. Y., Jackson China Co. of Falls Creek, Pa., Walker China Co. of Bedford and Mayer China Co. of Beaver Falls. The firms specialize in so-called hotel and restaurant ware, but some also produce fine china for household use.

The IBOP said it feels the engineering survey will be particularly helpful in initiating changes that will aid the companies in meeting competition from abroad.

The union emphasized that it will not accept any recommendations that will involve "reductions in wages, earnings, fringes or any

23,000 Already Treated

Goal Of 60,000 Doses Set In Saturday Polio Clinics

Directors of Columbiana County's oral polio vaccine clinics hope to administer the Sabin dosage to some 60,000 adults and youngsters Saturday.

Dr. Leonard Pritchard of Columbiana, chairman of the clinic program, said he hopes to triple the turnout of 23,000 in Wednesday's clinics.

With the original aim of inoculating over 90 per cent of the county's 106,000 population, the participation Wednesday was described as "only fair."

However, Pritchard said it hoped that there will be a much larger turnout for tomorrow's clinics because of the weekend.

Dr. Pritchard and other physicians in the Columbiana County Medical Society, sponsoring the program, urged everyone—adults especially—to obtain the dosage which costs only 50 cents or is free to those unable to pay.

The vaccine offered Wednesday and tomorrow provides immunization against Type I polio virus. Clinics planned next month and later this year will provide immunization against Type II and Type III polio.

Clinics will be open tomorrow from 1 to 7 p.m. or later, as long as people are attending.

Residents of Chester and Newell areas as well as Pennsylvanians may obtain the vaccine.

The dosage is composed of a few drops of the live virus vac-

Insurance Aide Honored; Awaits April Retirement

Roy McVay, retiring employe of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., was honored at a spaghetti dinner Thursday night at the home of Miss Catherine Franzetta of Manor Ln.

McVay, who will retire April 1, has served the firm 33 years, starting with the North Side Agency Sept. 9, 1929.

He will again be honored by members of the district March 30 at Piatt's Tea Room at Wellsville.

A gift was presented McVay by veteran members of the district, James Bowen, George Schneidmiller, Gerald Johnson, Paul Nightingale, Charles Scott, Leo Lawrence, Curt Wallace, John Ruhe and the hostess. William Kent, manager, was a guest.

City To Open Ceramic Site For Motorists

Street department crews have completed the job of placing a temporary slag surface on the new municipal parking lot on the former site of the Ceramic Theater and it will be opened to the public for the first time this afternoon or tonight, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said.

Opening up the lot will provide additional off-street space pending the final touches on the project—blacktopping the surface and installation of parking meters, Owen pointed out.

It may be six weeks to two months before the lot is completed, as enabling legislation will be required from Council, then the administration will advertise for bids on blacktop and meters.

The city acquired the site Sept. 1 for $45,000 from heirs of the Tallman Estate. It fronts 98 feet on E 4th St. and is 130 feet deep. When the lot is surfaced and parking spaces have been lined off, it is expected to provide space for 40 autos.

Revenue from the meters will retire the bonds issued to cover the purchase price and the cost of razing the building and preparing the site.

The director asked the public to be careful not to "gun" auto motors while traveling across the slag surface. Spinning car wheels might rut the surface, he explained. If the surface becomes hazardous because of ruts, the city may be forced to close the lot until it can be blacktopped, he said.

Since parking spaces cannot be lined off on the slag surface, Owen asked motorists to be courteous and not leave their autos in such a position that another driver's exit would be blocked.

Director's Secretary Has Job Exam Forms

Because of the illness of Mrs. Genevieve Weaver, receptionist in Mayor Bert H. Goodblalet's office, application forms are available from Mrs. Lillian McKeever, secretary to Safety - Service Director Robert Owen, for two city job exams scheduled in April, P. K. Calhoon, clerk of the Civil Service Commission, explained today.

In is announcement of the job exams, the commission said application forms could be picked up or returned at the mayor's office. However, Mrs. McKeever is in charge of the blanks during Mrs. Weaver's illness, Calhoon said.

April 2 at 4 p.m is the deadline for filing applications for an exam for public health nurse, slated April 16. April 3 at 4 p.m. is the deadline for a test for the post of clerk-stenographer in the sewage department. The test will be given April 18. Members of the commission also have the applications. They are Donal I. Burcham, Atty. Ben H. Berman and A. A. Fiorello.

City To Open Ceramic Site For Motorists

Street department crews have completed the job of placing a temporary slag surface on the new municipal parking lot on the former site of the Ceramic Theater and it will be opened to the public for the first time this afternoon or tonight, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said.

Opening up the lot will provide additional off-street space pending the final touches on the project—blacktopping the surface and installation of parking meters, Owen pointed out.

It may be six weeks to two months before the lot is completed, as enabling legislation will be required from Council, then the administration will advertise for bids on blacktop and meters.

The city acquired the site Sept. 1 for $45,000 from heirs of the Tallman Estate. It fronts 98 feet on E 4th St. and is 130 feet deep. When the lot is surfaced and parking spaces have been lined off, it is expected to provide space for 40 autos.

Revenue from the meters will retire the bonds issued to cover the purchase price and the cost of razing the building and preparing the site.

The director asked the public to be careful not to "gun" auto motors while traveling across the slag surface. Spinning car wheels might rut the surface, he explained. If the surface becomes hazardous because of ruts, the city may be forced to close the lot until it can be blacktopped, he said.

Since parking spaces cannot be lined off on the slag surface, Owen asked motorists to be courteous and not leave their autos in such a position that another driver's exit would be blocked.

Director's Secretary Has Job Exam Forms

Because of the illness of Mrs. Genevieve Weaver, receptionist in Mayor Bert H. Goodblalet's office, application forms are available from Mrs. Lillian McKeever, secretary to Safety - Service Director Robert Owen, for two city job exams scheduled in April, P. K. Calhoon, clerk of the Civil Service Commission, explained today.

In is announcement of the job exams, the commission said application forms could be picked up or returned at the mayor's office. However, Mrs. McKeever is in charge of the blanks during Mrs. Weaver's illness, Calhoon said.

April 2 at 4 p.m is the deadline for filing applications for an exam for public health nurse, slated April 16. April 3 at 4 p.m. is the deadline for a test for the post of clerk-stenographer in the sewage department. The test will be given April 18. Members of the commission also have the applications. They are Donal I. Burcham, Atty. Ben H. Berman and A. A. Fiorello.

Fined were Samuel Ronshak of Lisbon R.D. 3, $5 and costs for parking on the highway; James R. Stewart, 511 Washington St., Lisbon, $5 and costs for speeding, and Robert J. Gorby of Negley R.D. 1, $5 and costs for passing at the crest of a hill.

Someone's Hand In Your Pocket?

Congressmen are being bombarded with objections to a proposal for withholding 20 per cent of the interest on bank savings.

Some say it's the most violent reaction they've ever experienced. If it isn't, it should be.

This is an atrocious scheme.

The most atrocious thing about it is the reason it was proposed. It came out of the warped minds of these people in Washington who think they are being liberal when they go to work on other people's money with a scoop shovel.

When these "liberals" were driven by necessity into offering business enterprise an incentive — $8 in tax relief for every $100 spent for tools and equipment — they tried to get even by slapping a 20 per cent withholding tax on dividends and interest, to be levied at the source.

THEY CONCEDED the gimmick would be a nightmare for the Internal Revenue Service to administer.

They conceded it would be a pain in the computers for corporations and banks.

They had to admit they had loused it up with so many slippery complications it would take years to untangle it in the courts.

They even had to admit it would be grossly unfair to the majority of dividend drawers and bank depositors because the government would be collecting money it would have to pay back to people who owed no taxes.

And, to those who knew the ins and outs of money legerdemain, the "liberals" had to confess something more damaging than any of the rest — that the gimmick would give the people who owed depositors and stockholders interest and dividends the use of this money free while the government was awaiting the time to collect it from them.

It was an out-and-out gouge of the little man for the benefit of the corporations, the banks and, of all people, the "liberals."

THERE IS NO shortage of reasons to be sore about this scheme to take away a fifth of what is owed before it's paid and to turn it over to the people responsible for paying it for safekeeping at no interest until the government collects it.

This is as infuriating as finding a strange hand in your pocket when you reach for your change.

The withholding tax on wages was bad enough, but it had the virtue of being the only way the government could collect a broad-based personal income tax.

A withholding tax on dividends and interests would be intolerable. It is a spite proposal.

For once the "liberals" — with other people's money — ought to withdraw into the Washington woodwork and settle for revenue only. No spitework, no fancy Dan reform, no sweet revenge, no financial manipulation, just a bill to get the revenue feathers off the goose without killing the goose.

Had Your 'Shot'?

Those who were unable to get their "shots" during the first day of the Sabin oral polio vaccine program will have another opportunity Saturday when clinics are held again at 11 places throughout Columbiana County.

With polio already on the run, programs such as those being conducted by the county medical society could chase the dread disease right out of the picture. If you aren't convinced that an ounce of prevention is worth the effort, talk to some one already crippled by polio.

We Never Defined Our Terms

When Premier Khrushchev says response to President Kennedy's suggestion for joint efforts in space depends "in some degree on the solution of the disarmament problem," he makes it clearer than it was before that the problem never has been defined.

The terms are still unknown. Most of the names are not only vague but inaccurate.

It is not disarmament as such that is being thought about in the first place.

It is only some form of agreement to keep an armament race from bankrupting all the competitors.

And in truth it isn't bankruptcy from staying in the race that bothers those who know most about the problem. It is bankruptcy if the race stops. Armament is the greatest business booster of all time, because there is no point of satiety in consumption of the commodity, no saturation point.

WHAT THE WORLD has been looking for since the memory of mind runneth not to the contrary is an armament arrangement that will defend the country and stimulate productive enterprise without turning into a white elephant that consumes an ever-increasing share of the nation's wealth.

The Russian position always has been total disarmament or nothing, which is absurd. But there is a possibility now that the Russian position might become more reasonable and realistic.

The men making over Russia in a little more than one generation are obsessed with the importance of prestige. When World War II began, Russia had no prestige. When it ended, Russia was a major world power.

A few years later it was second only to the United States. When it subsequently leaped into a commanding position in the contest for prestige in the mastery of outer space, Russia discovered something far better than massive military power to win respect for its ability.

RUSSIA CANNOT afford to do everything it wants to do in the new project and continue to do everything it thinks it needs to do in its old project of massive military preparation. It needs to control the armament race. So does the United States.

They need to agree, as prizefighters agree, that they will use gloves of the same weight and refrain from certain punches. This is not disarmament. It is controlled armament. This is not something done in pursuit of eternal peace but in the interest of making room for a new project of international competition.

The United States and the Soviet Union have found a new way to race with each other, and at this stage of the contest it would be a good idea to stay close together to make sure that neither gains a march on the other. Meanwhile, there should be no surprises.

It just might work. It wouldn't be disarmament, but it could turn out to be a leveling off in the piling up of expensive armament that neither side ever expects to use.

Good Approach

The meetings on street problems that councilmen have launched with residents of their respective wards make a lot of sense.

While there may be disagreements at times, such discussions should help to eliminate much confusion and misinformation that might result otherwise, with both the people and the councilmen benefitting as a result.

No problem is more pressing than that of street repairs. Residents should take advantage of the opportunity to sit down and talk things over with the legislators.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: Our wall map showing the places where fighting is going on is speckled with red. The Jews and Syrians are at it, the Algerian Moslems and the French 100 per centers and, we feel sure, all the chronic fighters, including our own outfit in South Viet Nam, where they're killing one another at a pretty good clip.

We mention this because in your recent letter you sounded as if you were expecting peace to break out. Don't wait for it. Peace never has broken out. It never will.

Long ago your aunt and I quit talking about peace. We now keep our thoughts straight as far as this puzzle is concerned by talking about truces. We have a truce with the people who tried to knock off South Korea — no peace, just a truce. We are trying to get a truce in Laos.

The strategy in South Viet Nam is to beef up the local army enough to hold off the people hoping to be able to knock if off. No peace. Just a standoff.

There is a standoff in Berlin; there will be no peace there, ever. There is a truce between the Soviet Union and Finland, a standoff between Red China and Red Russia. The United States has a truce with Mexico.

This is not peace. This is not what people mean when they talk about peace, which is a state of tranquility in which people love and respect one another.

You will find none of it on earth. Contrary to a mistaken idea that has been in circulation too long for our own good, familiarity is not going to generate more love and respect. Familiarity will breed contempt.

We Americans always have been sure that if the world knew us better it would love us. Well, it now knows us better than it ever knew us before, and it, does not love us.

We two old parties have put in as much work as the average citizens puts in on loving our neighbors to pieces, and we've had a slittle trouble as anybody could hope to have. But we know that the only thing thing which causes an absence of violence among men is respect for the consequences of violence.

All you need to do is leave the door ajar and the dogs of war will run loose. We waste our time when we urge lions and the lambs to lie down together in peace. If they lie down together it will be because the lion has had a full meal and the lamb is too stupid to know what not to trust in a world that considers lamb chops a delicacy.

Do not say this sounds cynical. We are not cynical. We just feel it's absurd for people to babble about peace, as if the nature of man might be going to change. The nature of man is going to stay the same.

It's, shall we say, undependable. It takes a lot of sitting on to keep it from leading us into trouble and violence. Our map speckled with red shows that things are normal, which is how we are too — normal.

You try to be normal too. Quit mooning about peace. There ain't going to be any. But with a little luck we may have an absence of large-scale war. A few scuffles going on here and there never hurt anybody.

Cotton Corners — UNCLE GEORGE

Rabbits differ from hares in that they are smaller and have shorter legs and ears. Hares have powerful hind legs and the tips of their long ears are black. The rabbit lives in burrows which it digs under the ground, building separate tunnels for raising their young. The hare lives in the open, and has no home, depending upon its speed for safety. Both differ from most other rodents (beavers, rats, squirrels, gophers, etc.) in having four incisor teeth in the upper jaw instead of only two.

Now To Get Off The Ground

Extremism Should Be Repudiated

By Raymond Moley

Over the last year liberals generally and liberal Democrats in particular have made a public relations killing by spreading far and wide the implication that the extremists in the John Birch Society and its leader, Robert Welch, represented conservatism generally and the Republican party specfically.

This has been despite the vigorous and early repudiation of such extremism by former President Eisenhower and former Vice President Nixon and by leading conservatives more recently. Such extremism is neither conservative nor Republican.

Now that monkey on the back of the right has a mate, considerably larger, squatting on the shoulders of liberalism generally and the Democratic party specifically.

It would seem to be wise at the moment for sound and reasonable people, both liberal and conservative, Democratic as well as Republican, to repudiate extremism of both kinds.

In these perilous days there should be no monkey business in either political party.

There has appeared a paperbound volume entitled, "The Liberal Papers." We are told in the introduction by James Roosevelt that this is the outgrowth of the efforts of "a group of fellow congressional colleagues during the 86th Congress, 1959-1960."

These statesmen, says Roosevelt, were apprehensive of what he calls "the treacherous course" of foreign policy at that time. This, of course, means that the Eisenhower administration was pursuing a "treacherous course."

These congressmen, apparently unable to supply an alternative out of their own heads, resorted to the familiar device of getting a group of "intellectuals" to provide some essays for them.

It has now been shown that the "group" to which Roosevelt refers consisted of 12 Democratic members of the House of Representatives who were very active in the project.

It is charged by Republican senators that there were 23 other Democratic members of the House who were "close" to the project and that among these was Chester Bowles. Of the original 12, five were defeated in 1960, and three of these are now employed in the Kennedy administration.

THE "PAPERS" for which these congressmen, including Roosevelt, are the sponsors were written by 12 individuals whose names are familiar among the writers and pamphleteers who deal with foreign affairs.

The following is a summary of positions taken by these writers:

1. West Berlin is of no value "except as a moral liability" of the Western powers. Presumably the "moral liability" can be abandoned. East Germany would be recognized.

The Polish Rapacki plan should be used, and both Germanys should be neutralized militarily.

2. NATO should be disestablished, leaving nothing but an Atlantic alliance of Britain, Canada, and the United States. Thus all of Continental Europe should be left to the caprice of the Soviet.

3. Presumably this would mean the withdrawal of our forces from all of Continental Europe.

4. At home we should abandon "the half-baked arrangement called civil defense."

5. We should unilaterally abandon the idea of nuclear tests.

6. We should let the Soviet "plug in" on our radar warning system. Thus the Soviet would be allowed to warn itself against any attack by the United States.

7. We should "liberalize" our trade policy with Russia.

8. The idea that we can avoid war with the Communist world by preparing for it is "irrational."

9. There should be recognition by the United States and admission to the U.N. of "both Germanys, both Koreas, Communist China, and both Vietnams. Incorporate Quemoy and Matsu into the China mainland.

These are the recommendations of Quincy Wright, professor emeritus of International Law of the University of Chicago and the University of Virginia.

THE WHOLE THING is a craven design for surrender. And since this bombshell, thus sponsored by Democratic House members, is dropped just as the Kennedy administration is entering into negotiations for disarmament and other purposes, it would seem that the President should be even more concerned about repudiating his own extremists than he has been in attacking the extremists of the right.

In the Birch case the sponsorship has been a private individual in Massachusetts named Welch. But this work is by a considerable number of the President's own party.

In this moment of vital national crisis, both political parties should repudiate both extremes and find common ground in foreign policy in the interest of firmness before the Communist threat, national security, and the maintenance of American good will and moral leadership in the free world.

Constitution Outdated?

By David Lawrence

Amendment Seen Only Answer To Vote Tests

There's a tendency nowadays in governmental circles, particularly among the younger and more impatient liberals, to ignore the Constitution and to find some way of "getting around" the document.

David Lawrence

The Senate today is struggling with the question of whether to amend the Constitution or bypass it. One faction seeks by mere passage of a law to abolish the poll tax and other qualifications set up by the states as a basis for eligiblity to vote, while another faction feels this should be done only by a constitutional amendment submitted to the states for ratification.

The Constitution itself, however, is specific on the rights of the states to stipulate their own tests of eligibility for voting and the change really can be made only by constitutional amendment. In Article I', Section 2, the document says:

"The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature."

It is interesting to note that, when the Seventeenth Amendment was proclaimed in 1913 to permit direct election of United States senators by the voters instead of by the state legislatures, the same language as in the original constitution was used to specify that the qualifications of electors or voters in senatorial elections would have to be the same as those for the "most numerous branch of the state legislature."

This clearly means that the states today are the final judges of what the qualifications for eligibility to vote shall be, as long as these are uniformly applied.

There is a clause in the original Constitution which says that "the times, places, and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof."

The same article gives Congress the power to "make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators." This has never been construed judicially, however, to mean that Congress has any authority over voter qualifications.

It concerns solely the time, place and manner — the mechanical process—of conducting elections, such as the setting of the date for national elections or providing that election of members of the House of Representatives should be by "districts."

THIS HAS long been recognized by Congress itself, which, when desirous of eliminating certain forms of discrimination in the qualifying of voters, has twice passed constitutional amendments and submitted them to the states for ratification. Thus the 15th amendment says:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

Again, the 19th Amendment to the Constitution, as proclaimed in 1920, reads as follows:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

The Supreme Court has had to deal in various cases with many kinds of discrimination by state action and has ruled that the citizen must be given "equal protection of the law" and that his privileges and immunities as a citizen could not be impaired by reason of any discrimination. The court also has held that a state may specify almost any qualifications for voting, such as education or literacy tests or property taxes, as long as these are equally applied.

There is, therefore, plenty of law and constitutional authority to get at any real discrimination. The poll tax, it has been contended, is in itself a form of discrimination but this cannot be persuasively argued because persons irrespective of race or color have paid the poll tax and have been permitted to vote.

A MAJOR ISSUE eventually could arise out of another kind of "discrimination" against the large number of citizens who can read and write and have some sense of responsibility about the use of their tax money. They could find that the balance of power in a senatorial or congressional contest is held by a minority of illiterates who might be reachable through various forms of favor given or promised in order to win their support.

To open the polls, therefore, to everybody, including illiterate persons and those with a criminal record, and to take away from the citizens of a state the right to set the age for eligibility and other qualifications is to introduce a form of so-called "democracy" which our forefathers never contemplated.

If the people, however, by constitutional amendment, wish to change all this and let everybody vote, then there can be no legal objection.

What is really the source of much criticism is the attitude of those who say the Constitution and its method of amendment are outworn or outdated and should be bypassed.

Letters To The Editor

I realize that so many people have written to you concerning the present controversy over the city income tax that many of us are ready to throw up our hands in despair at having to read the same old lines over and over again.

We've heard the words Naziism, dictatorship and Communism mentioned over and over. I've used these terms myself, even in a recent letter to our mayor. Ever since I've felt a little uneasy. It's true this situation ranks high in the way of a dictatorship, but it is in reality a fault of our own. This is the reason for this letter.

We are missing the real point that has let this thing happen. We saw these men are not doing their duty as public servants. Again I agree. But have all of us been doing ours? I am very ashamed to admit that I have not voted in the last three elections. I am sure that we would be amazed at the large number of people who, having felt as I did "that what was the use, why bother when they just shove it down our throats any way," didn't vote either.

During the last two elections I looked over the list of candidates and picked out in my mind the ones I would want to see defeated. The very four members of City Council pushing this on us were at the top of my mental list—but I did not vote.

Should not this type of dictatorship (one of those words again) awaken the people to their responsibility? Should city council's complete disregard for the majority of the people be overlooked? If only people such as I would go to the polls on Election Day and vote against what they believe unfair, we could rid our town of this constant ill feeling and bickering.

I praise Mr. Duffy and have high hopes that he, or a man like him, will be put on the slate for mayor in our next election. A man that will do what the people expect of him and ask them what they want. A man that will stand against all odds doing the thing he knows is right no matter what pressure is put on him. Mr. Duffy, the unheard citizens of East Liverpool salute you!

We hear of so many people moving out of the city limits. Why? We are all becoming fed up with being pushed around and getting nothing in return. There has to be a change. People like myself can give the others support and I am sure we will. If even that fails to correct this situation then there is only one other solution for us. We can do something. As I wrote the mayor, and I quote: "Mr. Mayor my home is on wheels. It too knows freedom and the first chance possible those wheels will once again turn, not too many turns, but just enough."

Someone's Hand In Your Pocket?

Congressmen are being bombarded with objections to a proposal for withholding 20 per cent of the interest on bank savings.

Some say it's the most violent reaction they've ever experienced. If it isn't, it should be.

This is an atrocious scheme.

The most atrocious thing about it is the reason it was proposed. It came out of the warped minds of these people in Washington who think they are being liberal when they go to work on other people's money with a scoop shovel.

When these "liberals" were driven by necessity into offering business enterprise an incentive — $8 in tax relief for every $100 spent for tools and equipment — they tried to get even by slapping a 20 per cent withholding tax on dividends and interest, to be levied at the source.

THEY CONCEDED the gimmick would be a nightmare for the Internal Revenue Service to administer.

They conceded it would be a pain in the computers for corporations and banks.

They had to admit they had loused it up with so many slippery complications it would take years to untangle it in the courts.

They even had to admit it would be grossly unfair to the majority of dividend drawers and bank depositors because the government would be collecting money it would have to pay back to people who owed no taxes.

And, to those who knew the ins and outs of money legerdemain, the "liberals" had to confess something more damaging than any of the rest — that the gimmick would give the people who owed depositors and stockholders interest and dividends the use of this money free while the government was awaiting the time to collect it from them.

It was an out-and-out gouge of the little man for the benefit of the corporations, the banks and, of all people, the "liberals."

THERE IS NO shortage of reasons to be sore about this scheme to take away a fifth of what is owed before it's paid and to turn it over to the people responsible for paying it for safekeeping at no interest until the government collects it.

This is as infuriating as finding a strange hand in your pocket when you reach for your change.

The withholding tax on wages was bad enough, but it had the virtue of being the only way the government could collect a broad-based personal income tax.

A withholding tax on dividends and interests would be intolerable. It is a spite proposal.

For once the "liberals" — with other people's money — ought to withdraw into the Washington woodwork and settle for revenue only. No spitework, no fancy Dan reform, no sweet revenge, no financial manipulation, just a bill to get the revenue feathers off the goose without killing the goose.

Had Your 'Shot'?

Those who were unable to get their "shots" during the first day of the Sabin oral polio vaccine program will have another opportunity Saturday when clinics are held again at 11 places throughout Columbiana County.

With polio already on the run, programs such as those being conducted by the county medical society could chase the dread disease right out of the picture. If you aren't convinced that an ounce of prevention is worth the effort, talk to some one already crippled by polio.

We Never Defined Our Terms

When Premier Khrushchev says response to President Kennedy's suggestion for joint efforts in space depends "in some degree on the solution of the disarmament problem," he makes it clearer than it was before that the problem never has been defined.

The terms are still unknown. Most of the names are not only vague but inaccurate.

It is not disarmament as such that is being thought about in the first place.

It is only some form of agreement to keep an armament race from bankrupting all the competitors.

And in truth it isn't bankruptcy from staying in the race that bothers those who know most about the problem. It is bankruptcy if the race stops. Armament is the greatest business booster of all time, because there is no point of satiety in consumption of the commodity, no saturation point.

WHAT THE WORLD has been looking for since the memory of mind runneth not to the contrary is an armament arrangement that will defend the country and stimulate productive enterprise without turning into a white elephant that consumes an ever-increasing share of the nation's wealth.

The Russian position always has been total disarmament or nothing, which is absurd. But there is a possibility now that the Russian position might become more reasonable and realistic.

The men making over Russia in a little more than one generation are obsessed with the importance of prestige. When World War II began, Russia had no prestige. When it ended, Russia was a major world power.

A few years later it was second only to the United States. When it subsequently leaped into a commanding position in the contest for prestige in the mastery of outer space, Russia discovered something far better than massive military power to win respect for its ability.

RUSSIA CANNOT afford to do everything it wants to do in the new project and continue to do everything it thinks it needs to do in its old project of massive military preparation. It needs to control the armament race. So does the United States.

They need to agree, as prizefighters agree, that they will use gloves of the same weight and refrain from certain punches. This is not disarmament. It is controlled armament. This is not something done in pursuit of eternal peace but in the interest of making room for a new project of international competition.

The United States and the Soviet Union have found a new way to race with each other, and at this stage of the contest it would be a good idea to stay close together to make sure that neither gains a march on the other. Meanwhile, there should be no surprises.

It just might work. It wouldn't be disarmament, but it could turn out to be a leveling off in the piling up of expensive armament that neither side ever expects to use.

Good Approach

The meetings on street problems that councilmen have launched with residents of their respective wards make a lot of sense.

While there may be disagreements at times, such discussions should help to eliminate much confusion and misinformation that might result otherwise, with both the people and the councilmen benefitting as a result.

No problem is more pressing than that of street repairs. Residents should take advantage of the opportunity to sit down and talk things over with the legislators.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: Our wall map showing the places where fighting is going on is speckled with red. The Jews and Syrians are at it, the Algerian Moslems and the French 100 per centers and, we feel sure, all the chronic fighters, including our own outfit in South Viet Nam, where they're killing one another at a pretty good clip.

We mention this because in your recent letter you sounded as if you were expecting peace to break out. Don't wait for it. Peace never has broken out. It never will.

Long ago your aunt and I quit talking about peace. We now keep our thoughts straight as far as this puzzle is concerned by talking about truces. We have a truce with the people who tried to knock off South Korea — no peace, just a truce. We are trying to get a truce in Laos.

The strategy in South Viet Nam is to beef up the local army enough to hold off the people hoping to be able to knock if off. No peace. Just a standoff.

There is a standoff in Berlin; there will be no peace there, ever. There is a truce between the Soviet Union and Finland, a standoff between Red China and Red Russia. The United States has a truce with Mexico.

This is not peace. This is not what people mean when they talk about peace, which is a state of tranquility in which people love and respect one another.

You will find none of it on earth. Contrary to a mistaken idea that has been in circulation too long for our own good, familiarity is not going to generate more love and respect. Familiarity will breed contempt.

We Americans always have been sure that if the world knew us better it would love us. Well, it now knows us better than it ever knew us before, and it, does not love us.

We two old parties have put in as much work as the average citizens puts in on loving our neighbors to pieces, and we've had a slittle trouble as anybody could hope to have. But we know that the only thing thing which causes an absence of violence among men is respect for the consequences of violence.

All you need to do is leave the door ajar and the dogs of war will run loose. We waste our time when we urge lions and the lambs to lie down together in peace. If they lie down together it will be because the lion has had a full meal and the lamb is too stupid to know what not to trust in a world that considers lamb chops a delicacy.

Do not say this sounds cynical. We are not cynical. We just feel it's absurd for people to babble about peace, as if the nature of man might be going to change. The nature of man is going to stay the same.

It's, shall we say, undependable. It takes a lot of sitting on to keep it from leading us into trouble and violence. Our map speckled with red shows that things are normal, which is how we are too — normal.

You try to be normal too. Quit mooning about peace. There ain't going to be any. But with a little luck we may have an absence of large-scale war. A few scuffles going on here and there never hurt anybody.

Cotton Corners UNCLE GEORGE

Rabbits differ from hares in that they are smaller and have shorter legs and ears. Hares have powerful hind legs and the tips of their long ears are black. The rabbit lives in burrows which it digs under the ground, building separate tunnels for raising their young. The hare lives in the open, and has no home, depending upon its speed for safety. Both differ from most other rodents (beavers, rats, squirrels, gophers, etc.) in having four incisor teeth in the upper jaw instead of only two.

Now To Get Off The Ground

Extremism Should Be Repudiated

By Raymond Moley

Over the last year liberals generally and liberal Democrats in particular have made a public relations killing by spreading far and wide the implication that the extremists in the John Birch Society and its leader, Robert Welch, represented conservatism generally and the Republican party specifically.

This has been despite the vigorous and early repudiation of such extremism by former President Eisenhower and former Vice President Nixon and by leading conservatives more recently. Such extremism is neither conservative nor Republican.

Now that monkey on the back of the right has a mate, considerably larger, squatting on the shoulders of liberalism generally and the Democratic party specifically.

It would seem to be wise at the moment for sound and reasonable people, both liberal and conservative, Democratic as well as Republican, to repudiate extremism of both kinds.

In these perilous days there should be no monkey business in either political party.

There has appeared a paper-bound volume entitled, "The Liberal Papers." We are told in the introduction by James Roosevelt that this is the outgrowth of the efforts of "a group of fellow congressional colleagues during the 86th Congress, 1959-1960."

These statesmen, says Roosevelt, were apprehensive of what he calls "the treacherous course" of foreign policy at that time. This, of course, means that the Eisenhower administration was pursuing a "treacherous course."

These congressmen, apparently unable to supply an alternative out of their own heads, resorted to the familiar device of getting a group of "intellectuals" to provide some essays for them.

It has now been shown that the "group" to which Roosevelt refers consisted of 12 Democratic members of the House of Representatives who were very active in the project.

It is charged by Republican senators that there were 23 other Democratic members of the House who were "close" to the project and that among these was Chester Bowles. Of the original 12, five were defeated in 1960, and three of these are now employed in the Kennedy administration.

THE "PAPERS" for which these congressmen, including Roosevelt, are the sponsors were written by 12 individuals whose names are familiar among the writers and pamphleteers who deal with foreign affairs.

The following is a summary of positions taken by these writers:

1. West Berlin is of no value "except as a moral liability" of the Western powers. Presumably the "moral liability" can be abandoned. East Germany would be recognized.

The Polish Rapacki plan should be used, and both Germanys should be neutralized militarily.

2. NATO should be disestablished, leaving nothing but an Atlantic alliance of Britain, Canada, and the United States. Thus all of Continental Europe should be left to the caprice of the Soviet.

3. Presumably this would mean the withdrawal of our forces from all of Continental Europe.

4. At home we should abandon "the half - baked arrangement called civil defense."

5. We should unilaterally abandon the idea of nuclear tests.

6. We should let the Soviet "plug in" on our radar warning system. Thus the Soviet would be allowed to warn itself against any attack by the United States.

7. We should "liberalize" our trade policy with Russia.

8. The idea that we can avoid war with the Communist world by preparing for it is "irrational."

9. There should be recognition by the United States and admission to the U.N. of "both Germanys, both Koreas, Communist China, and both Vietnams. Incorporate Quemoy and Matsu into the China mainland.

These are the recommendations of Quincy Wright, professor emeritus of International Law of the University of Chicago and the University of Virginia.

THE WHOLE THING is a craven design for surrender. And since this bombshell, thus sponsored by Democratic House members, is dropped just as the Kennedy administration is entering into negotiations for disarmament and other purposes, it would seem that the President should be even more concerned about repudiating his own extremists than he has been in attacking the extremists of the right.

In the Birch case the sponsorship has been a private individual in Massachusetts named Welch. But this work is by a considerable number of the President's own party.

In this moment of vital national crisis, both political parties should repudiate both extremes and find common ground in foreign policy in the interest of firmness before the Communist threat, national security, and the maintenance of American good will and moral leadership in the free world.

Constitution Outdated?

By David Lawrence

Amendment Seen Only Answer To Vote Tests

There's a tendency nowadays in governmental circles, particularly among the younger and more impatient liberals, to ignore the Constitution and to find some way of "getting around" the document.

David Lawrence

The Senate today is struggling with the question of whether to amend the Constitution or bypass it. One faction seeks by mere passage of a law to abolish the poll tax and other qualifications set up by the states as a basis for eligiblity to vote, while another faction feels this should be done only by a constitutional amendment submitted to the states for ratification.

The Constitution itself, however, is specific on the rights of the states to stipulate their own tests of eligibility for voting and the change really can be made only by constitutional amendment. In Article I', Section 2, the document says:

"The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature."

It is interesting to note that, when the Seventeenth Amendment was proclaimed in 1913 to permit direct election of United States senators by the voters instead of by the state legislatures, the same language as in the original constitution was used to specify that the qualifications of electors or voters in senatorial elections would have to be the same as those for the "most numerous branch of the state legislature."

This clearly means that the states today are the final judges of what the qualifications for eligibility to vote shall be, as long as these are uniformly applied.

There is a clause in the original Constitution which says that "the times, places, and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof."

The same article gives Congress the power to "make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators." This has never been construed judicially, however, to mean that Congress has any authority over voter qualifications.

It concerns solely the time, place and manner — the mechanical process—of conducting elections, such as the setting of the date for national elections or providing that election of members of the House of Representatives should be by "districts."

THIS HAS long been recognized by Congress itself, which, when desirous of eliminating certain forms of discrimination in the qualifying of voters, has twice passed constitutional amendments and submitted them to the states for ratification. Thus the 15th amendment says:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

Again, the 19th Amendment to the Constitution, as proclaimed in 1920, reads as follows:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

The Supreme Court has had to deal in various cases with many kinds of discrimination by state action and has ruled that the citizen must be given "equal protection of the law" and that his privileges and immunities as a citizen could not be impaired by reason of any discrimination. The court also has held that a state may specify almost any qualifications for voting, such as education or literacy tests or property taxes, as long as these are equally applied.

There is, therefore, plenty of law and constitutional authority to get at any real discrimination. The poll tax, it has been contended, is in itself a form of discrimination but this cannot be persuasively argued because persons irrespective of race or color have paid the poll tax and have been permitted to vote.

A MAJOR ISSUE eventually could arise out of another kind of "discrimination" against the large number of citizens who can read and write and have some sense of responsibility about the use of their tax money. They could find that the balance of power in a senatorial or congressional contest is held by a minority of illiterates who might be reachable through various forms of favor given or promised in order to win their support.

To open the polls, therefore, to everybody, including illiterate persons and those with a criminal record, and to take away from the citizens of a state the right to set the age for eligibility and other qualifications is to introduce a form of so-called "democracy" which our forefathers never contemplated.

If the people, however, by constitutional amendment, wish to change all this and let everybody vote, then there can be no legal objection.

What is really the source of much criticism is the attitude of those who say the Constitution and its method of amendment are outworn or outdated and should be bypassed.

J. M. Briley, Candidate For Senator, Due Here

Continuing on the campaign trial for the Republican nomination for U.S. senator at the May 8 primary, John Marshall Briley of Toledo will visit East Liverpool Monday night.

Briley, who resigned his position as vice president of Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. to seek his party's senatorial nomination, will address a public meeting of the East Liverpool Area Men's Republican Club at 8 p.m. at Tice's Restaurant.

Harold Allison is serving as chairman for Briley's address. Samuel B. Webber is president of the club, which will hold a business meeting at 7.

Briley also will be at the Travelers Hotel from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. to meet the public.

The attorney and businessman was chairman of the Ohio Republican finance committee, and a member of the Lucas County Republican finance and executive committees. He was an alternate delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention in 1960.

Briley was born Jan. 10, 1905, in Monmouth, Ill., but his father, a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, was killed in a railroad wreck before he was a year old.

His mother worked as a clerk in a department store and to supplement the family income took in laundry. In elementary school, he carried two paper routes and performed odd jobs and spent the summers as a fieldhand on a truck farm.

Working at a drugstore through eight years in high school and Monmouth College, he also financed his high school and college education and saved funds for Harvard Law School by side jobs as high school and college reporter for the Monmouth paper and space correspondent for a Chicago daily.

Despite the demands of the various jobs, Briley was president of his sophomore and senior classes and president of the student body in high school. He was editor of the school yearbook and paper, president of the Illinois High School Press Association and first president of the National Interscholastic Press Association.

He was graduated in 1923 as class valedictorian and also was a member and captain of the school debating team.

At Monmouth College, he was president of the college literary society, editor of the school newspaper and business manager of the yearbook. He was also a member of the Student Council, president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and Pan-Hellenic Council.

After completing Harvard Law School, Briley obtained a job as law clerk at Shearman & Sterling in New York City, the nation's oldest and largest law firm.

He was named a partner in the firm in January 1941. His practice began with trial work and proceeded into appellate work, finally concentrating in areas of international legal matters, banking and finance law and antitrust matters.

In 1952, Owens-Corning brought him to its Toledo headquarters as vice president. He was named general counsel in 1956 with additional responsibilities for international operations and community relations in all domestic plants.

He has traveled extensively in Europe, Africa, India, the Far East and Latin America. He is a director of Owens-Corning's affiliates or subsidiaries in Mexico, Panama, Japan, Australia and New Zealand.

He was married in 1931 and has two daughters and two sons. He resides with his wife on their farm in Wood County near Perrysburg.

Anonymous Call Leads Officers To Bogus Money

MARION, Ohio (AP) — An anonymous telephone call led police officers to an estimated $30,000 in counterfeit money here Thursday.

Police Chief Justin Cornely said the caller advised the police to check an apartment house on Marion's West Side where the caller said they could find money taken last November in a supermarket robbery in Meadsville, Pa.

The search by Cornely and Capt. Virgil Campbell uncovered the stacks of 10 and 20 dollar bills. No arrests were made, Cornely said.

The apartment is where two of three men, now serving sentences in the Meadville robbery, lived when arrested late last year. Their names were not available.

Kenneth Beard, special agent of the Secret Service in charge of the Toledo District, said the bogus money appeared similar to counterfeit money turning up throughout the eastern half of the nation.

Beard also said the money appeared to have been printed from the same plates as that allegedly passed by Harry Grove, who is on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted list.

Cornely would not disclose where the money was hidden in the building.

Hancock Planners Advised County Unit More Effective

A consulting engineer told the Hancock County Planning and Development Commission Thursday night that a county can make more improvements on a broad scale than individual cities.

"Cities often do their own planning and don't have the large resources that a county has for planning and development," L. W. Pribble Jr., director of city planning for Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester advised the group.

Pribble added that the major problem in West Virginia counties is "economy." He said however, that Hancock is one of five counties in the state that has a good employment standing.

"But you people must not become complacent and you must continue to improve your economics," he told the 16-member county group at its meeting in the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

Bylaws drafted for the newly-organized commission by Miss Callie Tsapis were discussed. Miss Tsapis will prepare a final draft and the bylaws will be voted on at the next regular meeting.

She was named the commission's legal advisor for three years. Norman D. Ferrari of Weirton, chairman, presided for the group's second meeting. Fourteen were present.

Next meeting is April 26 at 8 p.m. in the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

Guest Of GOP Club

J. M. Briley, Candidate For Senator, Due Here

Continuing on the campaign trial for the Republican nomination for U.S. senator at the May 8 primary, John Marshall Briley of Toledo will visit East Liverpool Monday night.

Briley, who resigned his position as vice president of Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. to seek his party's senatorial nomination, will address a public meeting of the East Liverpool Area Men's Republican Club at 8 p.m. at Tice's Restaurant.

Harold Allison is serving as chairman for Briley's address. Samuel B. Webber is president of the club, which will hold a business meeting at 7.

Briley also will be at the Travelers Hotel from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. to meet the public.

The attorney and businessman was chairman of the Ohio Republican finance committee, and a member of the Lucas County Republican finance and executive committees. He was an alternate delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention in 1960.

Briley was born Jan. 10, 1905, in Monmouth, Ill., but his father, a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, was killed in a railroad wreck before he was a year old.

His mother worked as a clerk in a department store and to supplement the family income took in laundry. In elementary school, he carried two paper routes and performed odd jobs and spent the summers as a fieldhand on a truck farm.

Working at a drugstore through eight years in high school and Monmouth College, he also financed his high school and college education and saved funds for Harvard Law School by side jobs as high school and college reporter for the Monmouth paper and space correspondent for a Chicago daily.

Despite the demands of the various jobs, Briley was president of his sophomore and senior classes and president of the student body in high school. He was editor of the school yearbook and paper, president of the Illinois High School Press Association and first president of the National Interscholastic Press Association.

He was graduated in 1923 as class valedictorian and also was a member and captain of the school debating team.

At Monmouth College, he was president of the college literary society, editor of the school newspaper and business manager of the yearbook. He was also a member of the Student Council, president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and Pan-Hellenic Council.

After completing Harvard Law School, Briley obtained a job as law clerk at Shearman & Sterling in New York City, the nation's oldest and largest law firm.

He was named a partner in the firm in January 1941. His practice began with trial work and proceeded into appellate work, finally concentrating in areas of international legal matters, banking and finance law and antitrust matters.

In 1952, Owens-Corning brought him to its Toledo headquarters as vice president. He was named general counsel in 1956 with additional responsibilities for international operations and community relations in all domestic plants.

He has traveled extensively in Europe, Africa, India, the Far East and Latin America. He is a director of Owens-Corning's affiliates or subsidiaries in Mexico, Panama, Japan, Australia and New Zealand.

He was married in 1931 and has two daughters and two sons. He resides with his wife on their farm in Wood County near Perrysburg.

Anonymous Call Leads Officers To Bogus Money

MARION, Ohio (AP) — An anonymous telephone call led police officers to an estimated $30,000 in counterfeit money here Thursday.

Police Chief Justin Cornely said the caller advised the police to check an apartment house on Marion's West Side where the caller said they could find money taken last November in a supermarket robbery in Meadsville, Pa.

The search by Cornely and Capt. Virgil Campbell uncovered the stacks of 10 and 20 dollar bills. No arrests were made, Cornely said.

The apartment is where two of three men, now serving sentences in the Meadville robbery, lived when arrested late last year. Their names were not available.

Kenneth Beard, special agent of the Secret Service in charge of the Toledo District, said the bogus money appeared similar to counterfeit money turning up throughout the eastern half of the nation.

Beard also said the money appeared to have been printed from the same plates as that allegedly passed by Harry Grove, who is on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted list.

Cornely would not disclose where the money was hidden in the building.

business, Council last night adopted a new budget of $392,467.13, which is $16,014.46 less than the $408,481.59 adopted in June 1961

To support the budget, Council early in February adopted a tax rate of 13 mills on real estate, the same as last year, when Council cut it from 16 mills and added the occupation tax.

Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor, told Council it could appeal the Supreme Court ruling but said he believed it would be futile since Superior Court recently ruled the Johnstown occupation tax was also invalid. That tax was on only non-resident employes.

Masters said he feels Council should study other means to make up for the loss of the occupation tax and that it "should be fair and equal to people in Ohio and West Virginia who work in Midland."

Mayor Eli Corak asked Council immediately to instruct Atty. Masters to study Act 481, "the tax-anything law," to find a supplemental tax which "will be fair, equitable and legal" and report to Council.

William Vinovich, president, told the mayor Council would turn over his recommendation to the solicitor.

Corak said the borough will abide by the high court's ruling. He said "some people are jubilant and find comfort in the court's ruling but to the borough it is unfortunate." He added "it is fine that in our country the minority can be heard but the minority can cause the majority to suffer, adding additional expenses before the tax picture is over."

He said Council was in agreement when the tax was adopted, that no tax is popular but the occupation tax was inexpensive without injuring anyone.

He said that before the tax was adopted in February 1961, Council had agreed to seek the minimum means of revenue to be borne by all to help pay for borough services but the courts have now ruled the tax invalid.

Vinovich said he hopes the solicitor will come up with a tax "easy for all people." He said he doesn't understand how the $10 tax could be invalid yet legal for the borough to put on an income tax which could cost taxpayers employed in Midland two to three times that amount.

Under an earned income or wage tax, the borough can keep taxes from those out of state since Pennsylvania does not have a reciprocal agreement.

Even in taxing those who reside in Pennsylvania towns that have an income tax, Council can return that city's tax less 10 per cent under law. Some towns do not keep the full 10 per cent.

Council, in adopting the occupation tax, cited rising costs of borough services and that non-resident employes in the borough benefitted but did not pay for the services.

The five non-residents who appealed the tax were John Guernsey and Mike Feraci, both of Brighton Township, James C. Britton of West Mayfield, John G. Flasco of Ohioville and Gerald Houck of Beaver.

reduction or conflict with the present contract. . ."

Management will supply $10,000 and the IBOP will put up the same amount.

Here are the contract terms relating to the survey:

"The survey shall set forth weaknesses in the industry and shall contain specific suggestions for improving and remedying the same.

"The consultants shall have free access to all of the undersigned's plants but shall keep confidential information obtained in each plant, excepting as may be used in general conclusions to be used in the so-called master report hereinafter referred to, without identification.

"The consultants shall, after a preliminary survey of the industry situation and not later than the using up of 20 per cent of the budget, present to industry a verbal progress report, together with a written statement of further program and objectives. Industry shall have the right to change, amend or redirect the subsequent program or to terminate forthwith the assignment without further expense or cost.

"The final report shall be in writing and consist of an individual report to each one of the five companies signatory hereto and shall pertain to their particular plant or operation, which reports shall be kept confidential to the individual company. In addition thereto, there will be a master report covering the industry, which may incorporate, however, summary findings ascertained as a result of the survey without specific company identification. Copies of the master report shall be furnished to all parties."

"During the survey by Anderson-Nichols, the international union reserves the right to reject, accept or give final consideration and decision on any proposal recommended that will affect wages, wage fringes, grievances or working conditions as provided in the contract between the IBOP and the industry."

First announcement of the unique survey contract came Saturday, when an official of the Mayer China Co. revealed that the five firms and the IBOP had signed the agreement. But the plan was not explained in detail in the initial announcement.

The secretary of state has indicated it may be 30 days before the question is cleared up in court. However, he instructed Election Boards to continue to issue absentee ballots to members of the armed forces, their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U. S.

The special ballots have been available since March 9. Issuance of regular civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots does not begin until April 8.

Some absentee ballots have been printed, but none of the precinct supplies have come off the presses yet, O'Hanlon said. The Wellsville Publishing Co. is the contractor.

O'Hanlon said the Columbiana County board expects to delay at least a week on the GOP ballot printing to await the outcome of the court action.

Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor, told Council it could appeal the Supreme Court ruling but said he believed it would be futile since Superior Court recently ruled the Johnstown occupation tax was also invalid. That tax was on only non-resident employes.

Masters said he feels Council should study other means to make up for the loss of the occupation tax and that it "should be fair and equal to people in Ohio and West Virginia who work in Midland."

Mayor Eli Corak asked Council immediately to instruct Atty. Masters to study Act 481, "the tax-anything law," to find a supplemental tax which "will be fair, equitable and legal" and report to Council.

William Vinovich, president, told the mayor Council would turn over his recommendation to the solicitor.

Corak said the borough will abide by the high court's ruling. He said "some people are jubilant and find comfort in the court's ruling but to the borough it is unfortunate." He added "it is fine that in our country the minority can be heard but the minority can cause the majority to suffer, adding additional expenses before the tax picture is over."

He said Council was in agreement when the tax was adopted, that no tax is popular but the occupation tax was inexpensive without injuring anyone.

He said that before the tax was adopted in February 1961, Council had agreed to seek the minimum means of revenue to be borne by all to help pay for borough services but the courts have now ruled the tax invalid.

Vinovich said he hopes the solicitor will come up with a tax "easy for all people." He said he doesn't understand how the $10 tax could be invalid yet legal for the borough to put on an income tax which could cost taxpayers employed in Midland two to three times that amount.

Under an earned income or wage tax, the borough can keep taxes from those out of state since Pennsylvania does not have a reciprocal agreement.

Even in taxing those who reside in Pennsylvania towns that have an income tax, Council can return that city's tax less 10 per cent under law. Some towns do not keep the full 10 per cent.

Council, in adopting the occupation tax, cited rising costs of borough services and that non-resident employes in the borough benefitted but did not pay for the services.

The five non-residents who appealed the tax were John Guernsey and Mike Feraci, both of Brighton Township, James C. Britton of West Mayfield, John G. Flasco of Ohioville and Gerald Houck of Beaver.

Management will supply $10,000 and the IBOP will put up the same amount.

Here are the contract terms relating to the survey:

"The survey shall set forth weaknesses in the industry and shall contain specific suggestions for improving and remedying the same.

"The consultants shall have free access to all of the undersigned's plants but shall keep confidential information obtained in each plant, excepting as may be used in general conclusions to be used in the so-called master report hereinafter referred to, without identification.

"The consultants shall, after a preliminary survey of the industry situation and not later than the using up of 20 per cent of the budget, present to industry a verbal progress report, together with a written statement of further program and objectives. Industry shall have the right to change, amend or redirect the subsequent program or to terminate forthwith the assignment without further expense or cost.

"The final report shall be in writing and consist of an individual report to each one of the five companies signatory hereto and shall pertain to their particular plant or operation, which reports shall be kept confidential to the individual company. In addition thereto, there will be a master report covering the industry, which may incorporate, however, summary findings ascertained as a result of the survey without specific company identification. Copies of the master report shall be furnished to all parties."

"During the survey by Anderson-Nichols, the international union reserves the right to reject, accept or give final consideration and decision on any proposal recommended that will affect wages, wage fringes, grievances or working conditions as provided in the contract between the IBOP and the industry."

First announcement of the unique survey contract came Saturday, when an official of the Mayer China Co. revealed that the five firms and the IBOP had signed the agreement. But the plan was not explained in detail in the initial announcement.

Chester Boy Selected As 'Easter Seal Child'

Robert H. Johnston Jr., 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston, 553 Indiana Ave., Chester, has been selected as the 1962 Easter Seal Child by the Hancock County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

His condition was diagnosed as cerebral palsy when he was 8 months old. Attempts to help him began when he was a year old with treatment at the Cerebral Palsy Clinic at the Weirton General Hospital.

At the clinic, Mrs. Johnston was taught physical therapy which could be administered at home. Bobby visited the clinic once a week and then, after a period of time, once a month.

He later transferred to the East Liverpool Clinic for a short time for physical therapy treatments.

He was placed under the care of Dr. Jessie Wright of Pittsburgh at the age of 5 and immediately began a program involving the use of body braces. He began using full body and leg braces at 7.

Mrs. Johnston said the doctor is well pleased with his improvement and hopes to have him walking and talking in a short time. His last set of full body braces was purchased for him by the Hancock society.

Bobby is confined to his wheelchair with the exception of the times he stands during the day in conjunction with his treatment. He cannot stand without the full use of braces and is unable to walk.

Bobby attends Sunday School and worship regularly at the First United Presbyterian Church in Chester.

His favorite pastime is listening to music, especially Mitch Miller and Lawrence Welk.

He has two sisters, Karen and Michel.

Chester Boy Selected As 'Easter Seal Child'

Robert H. Johnston Jr., 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston, 553 Indiana Ave., Chester, has been selected as the 1962 Easter Seal Child by the Hancock County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

His condition was diagnosed as cerebral palsy when he was 8 months old. Attempts to help him began when he was a year old with treatment at the Cerebral Palsy Clinic at the Weirton General Hospital.

At the clinic, Mrs. Johnston was taught physical therapy which could be administered at home. Bobby visited the clinic once a week and then, after a period of time, once a month.

He later transferred to the East Liverpool Clinic for a short time for physical therapy treatments.

He was placed under the care of Dr. Jessie Wright of Pittsburgh at the age of 5 and immediately began a program involving the use of body braces. He began using full body and leg braces at 7.

Mrs. Johnston said the doctor is well pleased with his improvement and hopes to have him walking and talking in a short time. His last set of full body braces was purchased for him by the Hancock society.

Bobby is confined to his wheelchair with the exception of the times he stands during the day in conjunction with his treatment. He cannot stand without the full use of braces and is unable to walk.

Bobby attends Sunday School and worship regularly at the First United Presbyterian Church in Chester.

Pioneering delivery systems for the next generation's electricity

...another new way AEP keeps your electric costs low

By doubling the voltage on cross-country transmission lines, four times as many kilowatts can travel along the cables ...without building duplicate towers.

Within twenty years many Americans will be using four times as many kilowatts.

This is why AEP System engineers are already carrying on extensive research at Apple Grove, W. Va., on pioneering transmission lines operating at 750,000 volts —more than double the present voltage of any commercial transmission line.

Doing things in new ways to improve service and efficiency is one big reason why the average unit price of electricity, to Ohio Power Company customers, has not gone up during twenty years of inflation.

Your service is better, your rates are lower because Ohio Power Company is a part of the American Electric Power System. Supplying more electricity than any other investor-owned utility, AEP aids the economic growth of 2,350 communities in seven states. Through integrated operations, progressive engineering, research and coordinated management, the six member companies of AEP bring you low-cost power with greatest dependability.

Mild Cases Under Study

Officials Sift Delinquency

By BARBARA FROEHLICH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — How do you handle an incorrigible child, the type that is not tough enough to be placed in an industrial school, yet is in definite need of supervision outside the home?

This problem has confronted all of Ohio's Juvenile Court judges but so far has gone unsolved.

As a result many mild delinquents go to the state's industrial schools only to come out hardened delinquents.

To overcome the situation and look into the means of setting up a school for such youngsters between the ages of 12 and 18, officials from three northeastern counties met here Thursday.

They included state rep. B. A. Broughton (R-Geauga); Juvenile Court judges Bruce Henderson of Trumbull County and Calvin Hutchins of Ashtabula County, and Joseph P. Mallone, chief juvenile probation officer of Ashtabula County.

The four are directors of a group of Juvenile Court judges and probation officers that first met last summer to set up a special guidance school.

Others spearheading the group from the areas of Ashtabula, Trumbull, Portage, Lake and Geauga counties are Juvenile Court judges Clay Dietrich of Portage County; Robert Ford of Geauga County, John Clair Jr. of Lake County and Probation Officer Ralph Wilde, also of Lake County.

The group calls itself the Northeastern Ohio Youth Commission. It already has a definite plan for remedying the juvenile problem.

"That is," Trumbull County Judge Bruce Henderson says, "the acquisition of the Air Force's Brookfield radar station about six miles north of Youngstown near the Ohio-Pennsylvania border.

The 22-acre site is being declared surplus by the Air Force.

The property contains four permanent concrete block barracks as well as a mess hall, gymnasium and theater. The structures alone are worth $1.5 million.

The juvenile authorities met Walter Rhoten, chief of the Utilization of Property Division of the Ohio Department of Education, and George Miles, assistant chief of the state's Juvenile Division, Thursday. They discussed various ways of trying to obtain the property from the federal government. Their application must be approved by both the federal government and the Ohio Department of Education.

While trying to win the government's favor for the project, the group already has incurred the disfavor of the residents of Brookfield. The village school board has come out against the proposal that would house 250 pre-delinquent youngsters in their midst.

However, Joseph Mallone, president of the organization, contends the Brookfield site is not near a main highway, is somewhat isolated and therefore would not conflict with the community.

"The youngster that would be trained at this special guidance school is the type that objects to going to school and does not get along with his parents," Mallone said.

"The program we have in mind for the youngsters would be more of a constructive program rather than a punitive one."

Details of the program are to be ironed out further at a meeting in Ashtabula April 13.

Nominating Unit Appointed At K. Of C. Meeting

A nominating committee was appointed when Wellsville Knights of Columbus Council 507 met Tuesday night in the K. of C. Hall, with John Kozora, grand knight, presiding.

John Cataldo, Nick Zelasko, John LaScola, Anthony Desello and Hugh McCarron will report nominees for the election in June.

Louis McKenna of Lisbon, district deputy, reported that the third-degree ceremony slated in May has been postponed. It also was announced that the council's trophy for Wellsville High School's "most improved defensive football player" will be presented at the Boosters Club all-sports banquet.

George Prokop was appointed chairman of the St. Rocco festival to be held Aug. 12-18.

The six-point committee, with Anthony DeSarro chairman, will meet tonight at 8 at the council hall.

Grievances Resolved In Electric Dispute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Grievances that were leading to a shutdown of the big Westinghouse Electric Co. plant here have been resolved.

The company announced the settlement with the International Union of Electrical Workers Thursday night and said it resulted from concessions by both sides.

Officials Sift Delinquency

By BARBARA FROEHLICH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — How do you handle an incorrigible child, the type that is not tough enough to be placed in an industrial school, yet is in definite need of supervision outside the home?

This problem has confronted all of Ohio's Juvenile Court judges but so far has gone unsolved.

As a result many mild delinquents go to the state's industrial schools only to come out hardened delinquents.

To overcome the situation and look into the means of setting up a school for such youngsters between the ages of 12 and 18, officials from three northeastern counties met here Thursday.

They included state rep. B. A. Broughton (R-Geauga); Juvenile Court judges Bruce Henderson of Trumbull County and Calvin Hutchins of Ashtabula County, and Joseph P. Mallone, chief juvenile probation officer of Ashtabula County.

The four are directors of a group of Juvenile Court judges and probation officers that first met last summer to set up a special guidance school.

Others spearheading the group from the areas of Ashtabula, Trumbull, Portage, Lake and Geauga counties are Juvenile Court judges Clay Dietrich of Portage County; Robert Ford of Geauga County, John Clair Jr. of Lake County and Probation Officer Ralph Wilde, also of Lake County.

The group calls itself the Northeastern Ohio Youth Commission. It already has a definite plan for remedying the juvenile problem.

"That is," Trumbull County Judge Bruce Henderson says, "the acquisition of the Air Force's Brookfield radar station about six miles north of Youngstown near the Ohio-Pennsylvania border.

The 22-acre site is being declared surplus by the Air Force.

The property contains four permanent concrete block barracks as well as a mess hall, gymnasium and theater. The structures alone are worth $1.5 million.

The juvenile authorities met Walter Rhoten, chief of the Utilization of Property Division of the Ohio Department of Education, and George Miles, assistant chief of the state's Juvenile Division, Thursday. They discussed various ways of trying to obtain the property from the federal government. Their application must be approved by both the federal government and the Ohio Department of Education.

While trying to win the government's favor for the project, the group already has incurred the disfavor of the residents of Brookfield. The village school board has come out against the proposal that would house 250 pre-delinquent youngsters in their midst.

However, Joseph Mallone, president of the organization, contends the Brookfield site is not near a main highway, is somewhat isolated and therefore would not conflict with the community.

"The youngster that would be trained at this special guidance school is the type that objects to going to school and does not get along with his parents," Mallone said.

"The program we have in mind for the youngsters would be more of a constructive program rather than a punitive one."

Details of the program are to be ironed out further at a meeting in Ashtabula April 13.

Nominating Unit Appointed At K. Of C. Meeting

A nominating committee was appointed when Wellsville Knights of Columbus Council 507 met Tuesday night in the K. of C. Hall, with John Kozora, grand knight, presiding.

John Cataldo, Nick Zelasko, John LaScola, Anthony Desello and Hugh McCarron will report nominees for the election in June.

Louis McKenna of Lisbon, district deputy, reported that the third-degree ceremony slated in May has been postponed. It also was announced that the council's trophy for Wellsville High School's "most improved defensive football player" will be presented at the Boosters Club all-sports banquet.

George Prokop was appointed chairman of the St. Rocco festival to be held Aug. 12-18.

The six-point committee, with Anthony DeSarro chairman, will meet tonight at 8 at the council hall.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Dieting Youngster Grows Up, Slims Down

A roly-poly young lady who turned calorie darithmetic into a reducing game, no longer stands out as the fattest girl in her class!

Ida Jean Kain

The calorie countdown adventure began last November. At that time our young heroine was eight-turning - nine and tipped the scales at 100 plus pounds. How much plus she asked her mother to keep a deep, dark secret.

Now her weight is below 100. She has reduced 22½ pounds and not only is she pleased about her slimmer weight, but she is proud to have me tell you that her name is Kay and that she lives in Portland, Oregon. Her mother writes that Kay is just about the happiest dieter in town.

THE UNUSUAL part of this reducing story is that the young lady herself takes the responsibility for keeping the calorie score. Toward the end of the day she begins adding up the total calories to see if she can have a dinner dessert.

If the calories will not top 1,200, she has earned a treat. By this plan our dieter has learned which foods are overly fattening, and in the process she is changing her food habits. Kay has learned that sweets lead to eating more sweets.

For two weeks in a row when her mother baked cookies, Kay failed to count those calories, consequently there was no rewarding weight loss those weeks.

In the third report which just arrived, her mother writes: "Kay weighed in on the doctor's scales . . .96 pounds. This makes 22½ pounds off and the doctor is most pleased with her. She has grown a half inch taller and is now 4 feet 7. I've taken four inches out of the waist-bands of her skirts. She is so proud that all her jeans are much too large.

"I think the most thrilling experience for both of us happened one day recently when I walked past the school and her class was lined up outside. I had to search to find my daughter in the line for she no longer stands out as the fattest girl in her group.

"Thank you again for your interest in Kay's weight program. When she is down to her proper weight I will send along 'before' and 'after' pictures."

CHEERS FOR this young lady with the will-to-do. . .I'd like to give her a big hug!

To the mothers of overweight youngsters: Kay's story proves that children who succeed in reducing are so proud and happy about results they want to eat the right foods. Changing to new food habits works miracles. Proof that this young dieter is eating well is the fact that she is growing taller as she slims down.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for "Choose To Lose Diet," and "Teen Age Slimming Challenge." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Children Are Problem In Remarriage

You and I have seen some second marriages in which one or both mates already had children, when all lived happily together, even when a third set of children was added. Such is a great achievement, inspiring to see. But, as anyone knows, a new marriage involving "her children" or both, or "our children" added later, means a lot of problems. Under such conditions, there is more likely to be marked difference in ideas about rearing the children. The likelihood of jealousy also increases.

Dr. Garry Meyers

ABOUT TO MARRY again, having children of your own, you wisely will try to win these children to accept and like your mate, and to win acceptance and love of your children by the mate.

Important as it is for the father and mother in a normal family to confer often and try to agree in private on the children's upbringing, it is obviously still more important to do so in remarriage, where children of one mate are involved.

No matter how hard each mate tries to be lovely and just and fair with the other mate's children, some jealousies and doubts will arise. Then there may always be relatives ready to intensify these problems.

Foreseeing and sensing these problems, each mate will see the need to strive harder to avoid or reduce such problems and to be ready to overlook small annoyances that arise.

In all human relations, we grow as we practice at often putting ourselves in our imagination in another person's place, trying to see a little as he sees, feel a little as he feels and understand a little as he understands.

—:—

HOW IMPORTANT is such practice in all normal family relations! How much more important in such as the foregoing relations!

While an old friend or relative may be least able to help one in any family problem, a trusted stranger, especially a competent family counselor, may assist to a wonderful degree.

As I have often said in this column, every wife and husband should be on guard against discussing any problem related to their marriage with a relative or old-time friend. Nothing may prove more disastrous.

You see, this person always inclines to side with you, to pity you and take from you the urge to consider your own responsibility and to see your own problems objectively.

My "A Parent's Prayer," if read so as to substitute spouse for child, might prove helpful. This and "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Kennedy Due On Coast To Make Speech, Rest

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy heads today for California to make a speech, receive an honorary degree and rest in the desert resort area of Palm Springs.

He also will tour Vandenberg Air Force Base and there's a possibility he'll see an Atlas missile fired.

There's a likelihood that while in the Palm Springs area Kennedy will have a meeting with his predecessor, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The President's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, will accompany him on the flight to California. The attorney general has a date Saturday to attend a state conference on crime prevention in Los Angeles.

The President will be spending the weekend in a state where the breezes of politics are blowing strong—the scene of a highly significant off-year election in which former Vice President Richard M. Nixon seeks the Republican nomination to challenge Edmund G. Brown, the Democratic incumbent, for governor.

The President may go back to California again, but the White House describes this trip as non-political.

Kennedy will address a charter day convocation at the University of California in Berkeley this afternoon, receive the 21st in his collection of honorary degrees and then fly to Vandenberg Air Force Base.

Shortly after dusk, the chief executive is due to land in Palm Springs, where he may see Eisenhower before the weekend is over. The only announced plan is for Kennedy to relax until Sunday night at a private residence.

That residence is reportedly singer Bing Crosby's place on Shadow Mountain, outside Palm Springs itself.

Eisenhower has been spending several months in a plush cottage at Palm Desert, in the same neighborhood.

Kennedy is scheduled to leave Sunday night, sleeping aboard his Air Force jet on the return flight to Washington.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Dieting Youngster Grows Up, Slims Down

A roly-poly young lady who turned calorie darithmetic into a reducing game, no longer stands out as the fattest girl in her class!

Ida Jean Kain

The calorie countdown adventure began last November. At that time our young heroine was eight-turning - nine and tipped the scales at 100 plus pounds. How much plus she asked her mother to keep a deep, dark secret.

Now her weight is below 100. She has reduced 22½ pounds and not only is she pleased about her slimmer weight, but she is proud to have me tell you that her name is Kay and that she lives in Portland, Oregon. Her mother writes that Kay is just about the happiest dieter in town.

THE UNUSUAL part of this reducing story is that the young lady herself takes the responsibility for keeping the calorie score. Toward the end of the day she begins adding up the total calories to see if she can have a dinner dessert.

If the calories will not top 1,200, she has earned a treat. By this plan our dieter has learned which foods are overly fattening, and in the process she is changing her food habits. Kay has learned that sweets lead to eating more sweets.

For two weeks in a row when her mother baked cookies, Kay failed to count those calories, consequently there was no rewarding weight loss those weeks.

In the third report which just arrived, her mother writes: "Kay weighed in on the doctor's scales . . .96 pounds. This makes 22½ pounds off and the doctor is most pleased with her. She has grown a half inch taller and is now 4 feet 7. I've taken four inches out of the waist-bands of her skirts. She is so proud that all her jeans are much too large.

"I think the most thrilling experience for both of us happened one day recently when I walked past the school and her class was lined up outside. I had to search to find my daughter in the line for she no longer stands out as the fattest girl in her group.

"Thank you again for your interest in Kay's weight program. When she is down to her proper weight I will send along 'before' and 'after' pictures."

CHEERS FOR this young lady with the will-to-do. . .I'd like to give her a big hug!

To the mothers of overweight youngsters: Kay's story proves that children who succeed in reducing are so proud and happy about results they want to eat the right foods. Changing to new food habits works miracles. Proof that this young dieter is eating well is the fact that she is growing taller as she slims down.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for "Choose To Lose Diet," and "Teen Age Slimming Challenge." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Children Are Problem In Remarriage

You and I have seen some second marriages in which one or both mates already had children, when all lived happily together, even when a third set of children was added. Such is a great achievement, inspiring to see. But, as anyone knows, a new marriage involving "her children" or both, or "our children" added later, means a lot of problems. Under such conditions, there is more likely to be marked difference in ideas about rearing the children. The likelihood of jealousy also increases.

ABOUT TO MARRY again, having children of your own, you wisely will try to win these children to accept and like your mate, and to win acceptance and love of your children by the mate.

Important as it is for the father and mother in a normal family to confer often and try to agree in private on the children's upbringing, it is obviously still more important to do so in remarriage, where children of one mate are involved.

No matter how hard each mate tries to be lovely and just and fair with the other mate's children, some jealousies and doubts will arise. Then there may always be relatives ready to intensify these problems.

Foreseeing and sensing these problems, each mate will see the need to strive harder to avoid or reduce such problems and to be ready to overlook small annoyances that arise.

In all human relations, we grow as we practice at often putting ourselves in our imagination in another person's place, trying to see a little as he sees, feel a little as he feels and understand a little as he understands.

—:—

HOW IMPORTANT is such practice in all normal family relations! How much more important in such as the foregoing relations!

While an old friend or relative may be least able to help one in any family problem, a trusted stranger, especially a competent family counselor, may assist to a wonderful degree.

As I have often said in this column, every wife and husband should be on guard against discussing any problem related to their marriage with a relative or old-time friend. Nothing may prove more disastrous.

You see, this person always inclines to side with you, to pity you and take from you the urge to consider your own responsibility and to see your own problems objectively.

My "A Parent's Prayer," if read so as to substitute spouse for child, might prove helpful. This and "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Kennedy Due On Coast To Make Speech, Rest

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy heads today for California to make a speech, receive an honorary degree and rest in the desert resort area of Palm Springs.

He also will tour Vandenberg Air Force Base and there's a possibility he'll see an Atlas missile fired.

There's a likelihood that while in the Palm Springs area Kennedy will have a meeting with his predecessor, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The President's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, will accompany him on the flight to California. The attorney general has a date Saturday to attend a state conference on crime prevention in Los Angeles.

The President will be spending the weekend in a state where the breezes of politics are blowing strong—the scene of a highly significant off-year election in which former Vice President Richard M. Nixon seeks the Republican nomination to challenge Edmund G. Brown, the Democratic incumbent, for governor.

The President may go back to California again, but the White House describes this trip as nonpolitical.

Kennedy will address a charter day convocation at the University of California in Berkeley this afternoon, receive the 21st in his collection of honorary degrees and then fly to Vandenberg Air Force Base.

Shortly after dusk, the chief executive is due to land in Palm Springs, where he may see Eisenhower before the weekend is over. The only announced plan is for Kennedy to relax until Sunday night at a private residence.

That residence is reportedly singer Bing Crosby's place on Shadow Mountain, outside Palm Springs itself.

Eisenhower has been spending several months in a plush cottage at Palm Desert, in the same neighborhood.

Kennedy is scheduled to leave Sunday night, sleeping aboard his Air Force jet on the return flight to Washington.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm very much in love with a fellow who soon will be a full-fledged co-pilot for a major airline.

We've gone together since high school and I always knew we'd be married one day. But now that he is pressing me for a date I'm having some second thoughts.

He would have to be away from home several days at a time. The temptations for a man in his job are enormous. Some women just go for guys in uniform, not to mention the added problem of those good-looking stewardesses.

I've heard that the crews become very friendly and generally they stay at the same hotel. It's bad enough, being exposed to temptation during the day, but this night stuff has me concerned.

Perhaps I could get some information from your readers who are married to pilots. What are the chances for a solid marriage when a husband flies?—FEET ON THE GROUND.

-:-

Dear Feet: Some occupations offer more opportunities for philandering. But in the final analysis, the Big Question — To Cheat or Not To Cheat — rests with the individual.

In my opinion, marriage to a pilot would not be more nor less hazardous than marriage to a shoe salesman, a doctor or a plumber.

Guilty Conscience

Dear Ann Landers: My boy friend's parents went out of town last week. Chuck had orders not to touch his father's car. Well, he found the keys and drove to school a couple times.

During lunch hour Monday he let me take the wheel just for fun. I'm learning. My foot hit the gas pedal instead of the brake and we ran into a billboard. No one was hurt but it will cost $88 to fix the car.

Chuck's parents came home yesterday. When they saw the car they exploded. He took all the blame. They are making him pay for the repairs and they're grounding him for a month.

I want to go to his folks and confess but he can't see that any good would be accomplished if I got mixed up in it. In fact, he says it might even make things worse.

I can't sleep at night thinking about this. I have $54 saved from baby sitting and I want to give it to Chuck but he won't take it. Should I speak up or keep quiet? —GUILTY TOO.

-:-

Dear Guilty: Speak up. Chuck is noble to want to protect you but you must never permit anyone to take your lumps.

Go to the boy's parents and offer to pay half of the repair bill. They will respect you for it, and, what is more important, you will have more respect for yourself.

Closed Corporation

Dear Ann: My husband and his brother are in business together. They draw the same amount weekly and divide the profits annually. My husband works like a horse and is the brains of the business. His brother takes life easy and everyone knows it.

The brother's wife is a social climber and a big spender. For years they have lived up every dollar with their trips, big cars and fancy parties.

We always have lived conservatively and have managed to save a nice little nest egg. Now we want to buy a beautiful new duplex. We could live on one side and rent the other side out as income property.

My husband told me yesterday that his brother would like to buy the duplex with us — only he has no money. He wants us to put up all the cash. He will pay us monthly for his share — like rent.

What do you think of this idea? Frankly, I am against it. Is it worth a family fight? — GRETA.

-:-

Dear Greta: The idea is a poor one and I hope you'll nix it.

It's apparent that you don't care for these relatives. Having them next door would be murder. And what would you do, pray tell, if they couldn't pay the rent? Kick 'em out?

Buy a one-family home.

13 Left Homeless In Oberlin Blaze

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—A $4,000 fire in a 10-room frame house Thursday left three Oberlin women and their 10 children homeless. No one was hurt.

Two of the women were mothers of seven children who died in an Oberlin fire at a different place on Feb. 21, 1960. They were Mrs. Minnie Isom, who lost five children, and Mrs. Mary Malone, who lost two.

Mrs. Isom was in Oberlin's Memorial Hsopital, where she gave birth Wednesday to a baby boy. Her other three living children, along with Mrs. Malone's one surviving child, were at school at the time of the fire.

Assistant Fire Chief Bill Van Ausdale, who set the loss, said cause of the blaze, which started in a second-floor closet, was unknown.

To Cut Communist Flow

U.S.-Trained Vietnamese To Patrol Laos Border

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten companies of American-trained South Vietnamese rangers are being sent to patrol the heavily jungled Laotian border to cut down the flow of Communist guerrillas from North Viet Nam.

This is the first major effort to plug the 150-mile border which has been a main avenue of penetration for the Communist Viet Cong, who move into South Viet Nam across Laotian country controlled by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

American military advisers often operate in the bush with the South Vietnamese rangers and presumably some of them will be with the 10 companies being detailed to border patrol work.

South Vietnamese ranger companies number about 120 men each. U.S. experts said each company could patrol as much as 25 miles of territory.

Increased patrol activity also was reported along the border with professedly neutral Cambodia, to the south of Laos.

The South Vietnamese and some U.S. officers have contended the Viet Cong guerrillas have used Cambodia as a haven, although Cambodian officials have denied this.

This information became available in the wake of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's latest trip to Honolulu for a briefing on the progress of the U.S.-supported South Vietnamese war.

Officials, buoyed by reports of significant progress with U.S. aid since December, feel there is no need for U.S. combat troops in South Viet Nam where the United States has nearly 5,000 military men advising and training the pro-Western forces.

They said President Ngo Dinh Diem does not want U.S. combat forces in South Viet Nam. Diem believes the presence of such American units would reflect on his ability to control the situation in his own country and to prosecute the war against the Reds, these sources said.

Lisbon VFW Post Elects W. J. Nold

LISBON — Warren J. Nold was elected commander of VFW Post 4111 Wednesday evening. He succeeds Gerald Sanders.

A World War II veteran, Nold is associated with his father in the S. D. Nold Welding Co.

Others elected were Melvin Stark, senior vice commander; Frank Milhoan, junior vice commander; John H. Cosma, quartermaster; William E. McDevitt, three-year trustee; Sanders, two-year trustee; Evan Evans, one-year trustee; John Barnes, surgeon, and George Arnoto, chaplain.

Installation will be April 4.

Plans were completed for a grand opening March 31 of the annex recently completed by post members.

Activities will begin at 10 a. m. and a smorgasbord dinner is scheduled for noon. Dinner at 7 will be followed by a program and dancing from 9 to midnight.

William Bowlesfn, state commander; Fr. F. W. Braun of Leetonia, national chaplain, and William Lawrence of Dover, 6th District commander, will attend.

UAW Local Serves Ford Strike Notice

CLEVELAND (AP)—Local 1250, United Auto Workers, has served Ford Motor Co. notice that 9,300 employes will strike if grievances on health, safety and production standards are not settled.

The five-day strike notice could affect employes at the auto firm's two engine plants and foundry in Brook Park. A local 1250 spokesman said the international union is to decide whether there will be a walkout next Tuesday. Ford and UAW officials from Detroit are negotiating here in an effort to settle the dispute.

This is the first major effort to plug the 150-mile border which has been a main avenue of penetration for the Communist Viet Cong, who move into South Viet Nam across Laotian country controlled by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

American military advisers often operate in the bush with the South Vietnamese rangers and presumably some of them will be with the 10 companies being detailed to border patrol work.

South Vietnamese ranger companies number about 120 men each. U.S. experts said each company could patrol as much as 25 miles of territory.

Increased patrol activity also was reported along the border with professedly neutral Cambodia, to the south of Laos.

The South Vietnamese and some U.S. officers have contended the Viet Cong guerrillas have used Cambodia as a haven, although Cambodian officials have denied this.

This information became available in the wake of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's latest trip to Honolulu for a briefing on the progress of the U.S.-supported South Vietnamese war.

Officials, buoyed by reports of significant progress with U.S. aid since December, feel there is no need for U.S. combat troops in South Viet Nam where the United States has nearly 5,000 military men advising and training the pro-Western forces.

They said President Ngo Dinh Diem does not want U.S. combat forces in South Viet Nam. Diem believes the presence of such American units would reflect on his ability to control the situation in his own country and to prosecute the war against the Reds, these sources said.

New York Writers Impressed . . .

A New York writer covering the Grapefruit Circuit has written that Bernie Allen appears to have clinched the second base job with the Minnesota Twins.

Whether the writer's prophecy will come true, only time will tell, but at this stage of the game Allen's chances look good.

The article appeared in the New York newspaper Wednesday, a day after the East Liverpool bonus baby had driven in a pair of runs to defeat the New York Mets, 4-3. He even came up with a stolen base in that game.

—:—

TWIN manager Sam Mele was quoted in another New York paper as saying "Allen has been a pleasant surprise." Out of three games won by the Minnesota club this spring, Allen has been directly responsible for two victories. His home run won Saturday's game with Kansas City.

—:—

IT WAS only an exhibition game, but it seems a little on the ironic side that Allen should be the guy to beat the Mets.

For it was the Mets who were bidding for Allen's services with more effort than any other Major League club with the exception of the Twins.

The Mets wanted Bernie in a bad way and even offered to match anything the Twins put up in the way of a bonus.

However, Allen's long - time friendship with the Twins, and especially Floyd Baker of Youngstown, who is now on the coaching line with the Twins, prevailed and Allen signed a Minnesota contract last June 1 for $50,000.

Winter Baseball Helped . . .

IN ORDER to secure the second base job with Minnesota, Allen must beat out veteran second baseman Billy Martin, who some observers claim is "over the hill". Whether Martin is or not is hard to tell. All we know is that Allen has been playing every day at either second or shortstop.

Currently the ex-Purdue quarterback is hitting over .300. This may seem a little high fo Allen, who could only come up with a .241 average in the Class A Sally League last year.

However, there may be a reason for this. When he went into professional baseball at Charlotte, N. C., last summer, he was without the benefit of any professional training and hadn't played much baseball at Purdue, where the schedule was light.

This past winter he played in the Winter Instructional League in Florida, where he hit over .300, tied for the home run leadership and played every day.

Winter baseball no doubt has had a lot to do with Allen's fine showing so far in spring training.

So let's wait and see if there is an Allen in the Minnesota lineup when the major league clubs come North.

Potters To Meet Big Red . . .

THE OHIO Supreme Court's ruling which backs up the Ohio High School Athletic Association's one-year suspension of Canton McKinley from football means the East Liverpool Potters will meet Steubenville Big Red in football this coming season on Oct. 19.

Big Red was one of the teams on McKinley's schedule for the 1962 season, but the Canton school almost surely will have no interscholastic football next fall, so Steubenville will fill the open date with the Potters.

Although we still feel that the one-year suspension imposed on McKinley was a little harsh, we were glad to see the OHSAA and the Ohio Supreme Court stick by the initial decision.

It was unfair to McKinley though to receive such a stiff penalty because that school is not alone on violations. There are other schools in that area which have violated OHSAA rules, but no action was ever taken. In the future, since the OHSAA has won remember once you start something, finish it.

Off To Louisville . . .

IT'S off to Louisville and the NCAA tournament this weekend. We should be at ringside tonight in the spacious Freedom Hall which can seat upwards of 18,500 watching Jerry Lucas and his teammates go after Wake Forest in the first game, while Cincinnati and UCLA tangle in the second.

We are hoping for an All-Ohio final, of course, a rematch that every Buckeye basketball follower has been waiting a year to see.

SENIOR Jack Deshler and sophomore Frank McComas were given honorable mention on the 1962 Class AA All-Eastern Ohio squad.

Nonpareil To Hold Mat Show, Tourney, Carnival

An invitational basketball tournament, professional wrestling show and a carnival will be on the agenda when the Blue and White Nonpareil Club meets next Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the YMCA.

The basketball tourney is set for April 17, 19 and 21 at Memorial Auditorium. John Michels has been named tournament director.

Several of the top teams in the area this season, including Stanton Local and Midland have already been contacted about entering.

The professional wrestling show is set for April 7 at Memorial Auditorium featuring "The Crusher."

The Club has contacted the Gooding Brothers for a carnival in West End the week of May 14-19.

Head football coach Bob Hedmond will discuss setting up a scrimmage between Canton Lincoln, Campbell Memorial and East Liverpool sometime early in September.

The award is named for Fritz Howell, Ohio sports editor for The Associated Press, who, for many years, has advocated honoring people while they are still alive.

Smolen, 56, was awarded a framed copy of the poem, "Flowers for the Living," a plaque and a dozen red roses. The presentation was made at the annual meeting of the Bowling Writers Association of America here. The award was created by the Cleveland Kegler, a local bowling publication.

OSU, Cincy Favored To Gain Finals

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Poised, powerful Ohio State plays Wake Forest and cool, crafty Cincinnati meets UCLA tonight in the climax of their drive toward a second straight showdown for the National Collegiate (NCAA) basketball championship.

The Buckeyes, No. 1 in the nation, and the second-ranked Bearcats are all but odds-on to win the semifinals with ease and set up another all-Ohio championship.

If they make it to Saturday's final, it'll be the first time the same two schools have played for the championship two years in a row. Last year, Cincinnati won its first NCAA title — snapping Ohio State's 32-game winning streak and dethroning the 1960 champs, 70-65 in overtime.

Wake Forest, which has drawn All-America Jerry Lucas and Ohio State in the opener, rallied behind All-America Len Chappell and Billy Packer to win its last 12 games and the Eastern Regional eliminations after winning but nine of its first 17. Included in that slow start was an 84-62 loss to the mighty Buckeyes at Winston-Salem in December.

Johnny Wooden's UCLA Bruins also got the Ohio State shock treatment in December, losing to the Bucks in the Los Angeles Classic 105-84. But the Bruins — like Wake Forest in its recovery in the Atlantic Coast Conference —bounced back and won 14 of their last 16 games in nailing the Big Five title and the Far West regional.

The Bruins have team speed and balance, an 18-9 record, and a band of sharpshooters led by 6-foot-2 Johnny Green, with a 19.4 average.

Most concede, however, that it will take Wake Forest and UCLA at their absolute best to stay close to the powerful Ohio teams. Even the coaches — Ed Jucker of Cincinnati and Fred Taylor of Ohio State — admit their teams might be better than a year ago, when their battle drew praise as one of the great games in basketball history.

Homestead Retains Title At Midland

Homestead became champion for the second consecutive year when it defeated Calhoun, 11-6 and 11-4, in the finals of the Junior High WPIAL Volleyball Tournament held Thursday at Midland with 15 teams competing.

Calhoun was runnerup for the second straight year. John Wilson, Midland Lincoln Junior High coach and one of the tournament chairmen, presented the winning team with a trophy for its school and gold medals to the individual players.

Members of the runnerup team received silver medals. Kenneth Hobough was the other tournament chairman and Carl H. Brickner, league chairman, also was on hand.

Each pair of teams played the best two out of three. In the first round, New Kensington Ridge defeated Midland, 11-1, in both games; Homeville won over Ambridge, 11-1 and 11-8, and Lower Burrell beat Fox Chapel, 11-3 and 11-7.

Castle Shannon won over Beaver Falls 11-0 and 11-3; East Deer Frasier over Rochester, 11-6 and 11-4; Homestead over Plum Boro, 11-0 and 11-3, and Parnassus of New Kensington over Pine-Richland Township, 11-7 and 11-3. Pine Richland, a late entry, won one of the games, 11-7.

In the second round, New Kensington Ridge beat Homeville, 11-4 and 11-7; Calhoun won over Lower Burrell, 11-3 and 11-2, and Homestead over Parnassus, 11-0 and 11-3.

In the semi-finals, Calhoun beat New Kensington Ridge, 11-3 and 12-10, while Homestead won over Castle Shannon, 11-0 and 11-5.

Though each team had 10 players in a game, some of the teams brought as high as 20 boys with them.

Taste Of Revenge

Casey's Mets Edge Yanks

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The satisfying taste of revenge still lingered today with Casey Stengel, the frisky septuagenarian who has no regrets about his decision to leave the plush office of a bank vice president for the unadorned cubby hole of a major league baseball manager.

Stengel, 71, fired by the New York Yankees two years ago after guiding the team to 10 pennants in 12 years, never figured a measure of revenge would be his so quickly when he was tapped to manage the New York Mets for their 1962 National League debut.

But Stengel watched with evident satisfaction Thursday as his collection of hand-me-downs throttled the big bats of the world champions and gained a 4-3 victory at St. Petersburg in their first meeting of the exhibition season.

"Oh, it was just lovely," said Stengel after a pinch-hit single by Richie Ashburn drove in the winning run in the last of the ninth. "It's terrific. It should be very good for my players."

The triumph also gave a lift to Mets Coach Rogers Hornsby, a Hall of Famer with a .358 lifetime batting average who had been snubbed by 61-home run hitter Roger Maris of the Yankees in a pre-game incident.

Hornsby, asked by a photographer to pose with Maris, agreed. But when the two went to the Yankees dugout, Maris walked away, refusing to pose. Hornsby, who supposedly has made some unattractive comments on Maris' hitting ability, exploded.

"That bush leaguer," he stormed. "I've posed for pictures with some major league hitters—not bush leaguers."

In other Florida games, Kansas City whipped Washington 6-3 at Pompano Beach, Los Angeles' Dodgers beat Detroit 6-4 at Lakeland, St. Louis defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-1 at Sarasota, Cincinnati bopped Philadelphia 4-2 at Tampa, Pittsburgh knocked off Minnesota 6-3 at Fort Myers and Baltimore won a 5½-inning rain-shortened contest 6-0 over Milwaukee at Bradenton.

In Arizona clashes, Houston edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1 at Mesa, San Francisco nipped Cleveland 6-5 at Phoenix and the Los Angeles Angels edged Boston 4-3 at Scottsdale.

Semi-Finals, Finals Slated Tonight In Y Cage Tourney

Four squads remained eligible for a crack at the championship of the YMCA's four-man basketball tournament with victories in the opening round Thursday night.

The semi-finals and title game will be played tonight on the Y court, Carl (Pop) Werner, general secretary, said.

First game tonight at 6:15 pits Burke's against Hale's. The second game at 6:30 will find Adkins opposing Bailey's.

Games will be "sandwiched" and the title match will be the concluding event.

Burke's advanced by rolling over Chaffee's last night, 57-33, as Robert Reed and Don Black scored 16 points each. Joe Burke had 13 and Gus Dauka, 12. The winners led at halfime, 33-21. Chaffee hit 16 for the losers.

George Hale fired in 25 points to lead his team to a 70-36 triumph over Don Hildebrand's quartet. Joe Clement added 21 while Robert Owen had 13 and Jack Gallagher, 11. Hildebrand's 13 points led he losers.

Leading the Adkins squad to victory, 62-42, over Jim Tice's quartet, was Gary Weekley with 26 points, while Don Hague had 23. Tom Parsons and Jim George had 15 and 13 points, respectively, for the losers.

Jack Bailey scored 25 points to spark his team in a 61-49 victory over Larry Guy's squad. Guy led his outfit with 22 points.

Duquesne Blows First-Half Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—St. John's of New York and Dayton, two polished college basketball teams thoroughly tested in the pressure of tournament competition, climax stirring campaigns Saturday afternoon in the championship final of the 25th National Invitation Tourney at Madison Square Garden.

The seasoned contenders enter the showdown with sharply contrasting records in past NITs. St. John's has won three titles under its current coach, Joe Lapchick, while Dayton has had five second-place finishes under Tom Blackburn.

Both the Redmen and the Flyers from Ohio bounced into the title game with overpowering second half comebacks Thursday night. St. John's trimmed Duquesne in a bruising match, 75-65, after Dayton had rocked Loyola of Chicago 98-82.

Bill Chmielewski, held to one field goal in 11 tries as the swift Loyola Rambers raced to a 44-41 lead at intermission, combined with sophomore Gordy Hatton to spearhead Dayton's explosive 57-point second half. The 235-pound pivot finished with 27 points and 19 rebounds while Hatton, the tourney's classiest all-around performer so far, netted 33 points and contributed nine assists.

St. John's, down by nine points at the half, rallied behind the sweeping, soft hooks and accurate foul shooting of Leroy Ellis, then gradually broke away from Duquesne on the scoring of Kevin Loughery, Willia Hall and sub Bill O'Sullivan. Ellis had 29 points, Loughery added 18 and Hall 16.

Willie Somerset paced the spirited Dukes with 22 points.

A short but bitter brawl spiced the St. John's-Duquesne game. Donnie Burks of the Redmen and Mike Rice of the Dukes triggered it when they tangled with about three minutes to play, and before order was restored most of the players and several spectators became embroiled.

The championship game will be nationally televised (NBC) at 4 p.m. EST, following the consolation game for third between Loyola and Duquesne.

IN ORDER to secure the second base job with Minnesota, Allen must beat out veteran second baseman Billy Martin, who some observers claim is "over the hill". Whether Martin is or not is hard to tell. All we know is that Allen has been playing every day at either second or shortstop.

Currently the ex-Purdue quarterback is hitting over .300. This may seem a little high fo Allen, who could only come up with a .241 average in the Class A Sally League last year.

However, there may be a reason for this. When he went into professional baseball at Charlotte, N. C., last summer, he was without the benefit of any professional training and hadn't played much baseball at Purdue, where the schedule was light.

This past winter he played in the Winter Instructional League in Florida, where he hit over .300, tied for the home run leadership and played every day.

Winter baseball no doubt has had a lot to do with Allen's fine showing so far in spring training.

So let's wait and see if there is an Allen in the Minnesota lineup when the major league clubs come North.

Potters To Meet Big Red . . .

THE OHIO Supreme Court's ruling which backs up the Ohio High School Athletic Association's one-year suspension of Canton McKinley from football means the East Liverpool Potters will meet Steubenville Big Red in football this coming season on Oct. 19.

Big Red was one of the teams on McKinley's schedule for the 1962 season, but the Canton school almost surely will have no interscholastic football next fall, so Steubenville will fill the open date with the Potters.

Although we still feel that the one-year suspension imposed on McKinley was a little harsh, we were glad to see the OHSAA and the Ohio Supreme Court stick by the initial decision.

It was unfair to McKinley though to receive such a stiff penalty because that school is not alone on violations. There are other schools in that area which have violated OHSAA rules, but no action was ever taken. In the future, since the OHSAA has won remember once you start something, finish it.

Off To Louisville . . .

IT'S off to Louisville and the NCAA tournament this weekend. We should be at ringside tonight in the spacious Freedom Hall which can seat upwards of 18,500 watching Jerry Lucas and his teammates go after Wake Forest in the first game, while Cincinnati and UCLA tangle in the second.

We are hoping for an All-Ohio final, of course, a rematch that every Buckeye basketball follower has been waiting a year to see.

OSU, Cincy Favored To Gain Finals

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Poised, powerful Ohio State plays Wake Forest and cool, crafty Cincinnati meets UCLA tonight in the climax of their drive toward a second straight showdown for the National Collegiate (NCAA) basketball championship.

The Buckeyes, No. 1 in the nation, and the second-ranked Bearcats are all but odds-on to win the semifinals with ease and set up another all-Ohio championship.

If they make it to Saturday's final, it'll be the first time the same two schools have played for the championship two years in a row. Last year, Cincinnati won its first NCAA title — snapping Ohio State's 32-game winning streak and dethroning the 1960 champs, 70-65 in overtime.

Wake Forest, which has drawn All-America Jerry Lucas and Ohio State in the opener, rallied behind All-America Len Chappell and Billy Packer to win its last 12 games and the Eastern Regional eliminations after winning but nine of its first 17. Included in that slow start was an 84-62 loss to the mighty Buckeyes at Winston-Salem in December.

Johnny Wooden's UCLA Bruins also got the Ohio State shock treatment in December, losing to the Bucks in the Los Angeles Classic 105-84. But the Bruins — like Wake Forest in its recovery in the Atlantic Coast Conference —bounced back and won 14 of their last 16 games in nailing the Big Five title and the Far West regional.

The Bruins have team speed and balance, an 18-9 record, and a band of sharpshooters led by 6-foot-2 Johnny Green, with a 19.4 average.

Most concede, however, that it will take Wake Forest and UCLA at their absolute best to stay close to the powerful Ohio teams. Even the coaches — Ed Jucker of Cincinnati and Fred Taylor of Ohio State — admit their teams might be better than a year ago, when their battle drew praise as one of the great games in basketball history.

Homestead Retains Title At Midland

Homestead became champion for the second consecutive year when it defeated Calhoun, 11-6 and 11-4, in the finals of the Junior High WPIAL Volleyball Tournament held Thursday at Midland with 15 teams competing.

Calhoun was runnerup for the second straight year. John Wilson, Midland Lincoln Junior High coach and one of the tournament chairmen, presented the winning team with a trophy for its school and gold medals to the individual players.

Members of the runnerup team received silver medals. Kenneth Hobough was the other tournament chairman and Carl H. Brickner, league chairman, also was on hand.

Each pair of teams played the best two out of three. In the first round, New Kensington Ridge defeated Midland, 11-1, in both games; Homeville won over Ambridge, 11-1 and 11-8, and Lower Burrell beat Fox Chapel, 11-3 and 11-7.

Castle Shannon won over Beaver Falls 11-0 and 11-3; East Deer Frasier over Rochester, 11-6 and 11-4; Homestead over Plum Boro, 11-0 and 11-3, and Parnassus of New Kensington over Pine-Richland Township, 11-7 and 11-3. Pine Richland, a late entry, won one of the games, 11-7.

In the second round, New Kensington Ridge beat Homeville, 11-4 and 11-7; Calhoun won over Lower Burrell, 11-3 and 11-2, and Homestead over Parnassus, 11-0 and 11-3.

In the semi-finals, Calhoun beat New Kensington Ridge, 11-3 and 12-10, while Homestead won over Castle Shannon, 11-0 and 11-5.

Though each team had 10 players in a game, some of the teams brought as high as 20 boys with them.

Nonpareil To Hold Mat Show, Tourney, Carnival

Several of the top teams in the area this season, including Stanton Local and Midland have already been contacted about entering.

The professional wrestling show is set for April 7 at Memorial Auditorium featuring "The Crusher."

The Club has contacted the Gooding Brothers for a carnival in West End the week of May 14-19.

Head football coach Bob Hedmond will discuss setting up a scrimmage between Canton Lincoln, Campbell Memorial and East Liverpool sometime early in September.

Duquesne Blows First-Half Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—St. John's of New York and Dayton, two polished college basketball teams thoroughly tested in the pressure of tournament competition, climax stirring campaigns Saturday afternoon in the championship final of the 25th National Invitation Tourney at Madison Square Garden.

The seasoned contenders enter the showdown with sharply contrasting records in past NITs. St. John's has won three titles under its current coach, Joe Lapchick, while Dayton has had five second-place finishes under Tom Blackburn.

Both the Redmen and the Flyers from Ohio bounced into the title game with overpowering second half comebacks Thursday night. St. John's trimmed Duquesne in a bruising match, 75-65, after Dayton had rocked Loyola of Chicago 98-82.

Bill Chmielewski, held to one field goal in 11 tries as the swift Loyola Rambers raced to a 44-41 lead at intermission, combined with sophomore Gordy Hatton to spearhead Dayton's explosive 57-point second half. The 235-pound pivot finished with 27 points and 19 rebounds while Hatton, the tourney's classiest all-around performer so far, netted 33 points and contributed nine assists.

St. John's, down by nine points at the half, rallied behind the sweeping, soft hooks and accurate foul shooting of Leroy Ellis, then gradually broke away from Duquesne on the scoring of Kevin Loughery, Willia Hall and sub Bill O'Sullivan. Ellis had 29 points, Loughery added 18 and Hall 16.

Willie Somerset paced the spirited Dukes with 22 points.

A short but bitter brawl spiced the St. John's-Duquesne game. Donnie Burks of the Redmen and Mike Rice of the Dukes triggered it when they tangled with about three minutes to play, and before order was restored most of the players and several spectators became embroiled.

The championship game will be nationally televised (NBC) at 4 p.m. EST, following the consolation game for third between Loyola and Duquesne.

WHEELING (AP) — The harness racing meet at Wheeling Downs April 6 through May 5 will be headed by veteran official Ted Leonard of New Orleans.

Leonard will serve as general manager and racing secretary for the second meeting under the supervision of the Wheeling Downs Harness Raceway Inc. Last fall's initial meet introduced harness racing with pari-mutuel betting to West Virginia.

This year the trotters will run every night except Sundays.

Taste Of Revenge

Casey's Mets Edge Yanks

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The satisfying taste of revenge still lingered today with Casey Stengel, the frisky septuagenarian who has no regrets about his decision to leave the plush office of a bank vice president for the unadorned cubby hole of a major league baseball manager.

Stengel, 71, fired by the New York Yankees two years ago after guiding the team to 10 pennants in 12 years, never figured a measure of revenge would be his so quickly when he was tapped to manage the New York Mets for their 1962 National League debut.

But Stengel watched with evident satisfaction Thursday as his collection of hand-me-downs throttled the big bats of the world champions and gained a 4-3 victory at St. Petersburg in their first meeting of the exhibition season.

"Oh, it was just lovely," said Stengel after a pinch-hit single by Richie Ashburn drove in the winning run in the last of the ninth. "It's terrific. It should be very good for my players."

The triumph also gave a lift to Mets Coach Rogers Hornsby, a Hall of Famer with a .358 lifetime batting average who had been snubbed by 61-home run hitter Roger Maris of the Yankees in a pre-game incident.

Hornsby, asked by a photographer to pose with Maris, agreed. But when the two went to the Yankees dugout, Maris walked away, refusing to pose. Hornsby, who supposedly has made some unattractive comments on Maris' hitting ability, exploded.

"That bush leaguer," he stormed. "I've posed for pictures with some major league hitters—not bush leaguers."

In other Florida games, Kansas City whipped Washington 6-3 at Pompano Beach, Los Angeles' Dodgers beat Detroit 6-4 at Lakeland, St. Louis defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-1 at Sarasota, Cincinnati bopped Philadelphia 4-2 at Tampa, Pittsburgh knocked off Minnesota 6-3 at Fort Myers and Baltimore won a 5½-inning rain-shortened contest 6-0 over Milwaukee at Bradenton.

In Arizona clashes, Houston edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1 at Mesa, San Francisco nipped Cleveland 6-5 at Phoenix and the Los Angeles Angels edged Boston 4-3 at Scottsdale.

Semi-Finals, Finals Slated Tonight In Y Cage Tourney

Four squads remained eligible for a crack at the championship of the YMCA's four-man basketball tournament with victories in the opening round Thursday night.

The semi-finals and title game will be played tonight on the Y court, Carl (Pop) Werner, general secretary, said.

First game tonight at 6:15 pits Burke's against Hale's. The second game at 6:30 will find Adkins opposing Bailey's.

Games will be "sandwiched" and the title match will be the concluding event.

Burke's advanced by rolling over Chaffee's last night, 57-33, as Robert Reed and Don Black scored 16 points each. Joe Burke had 13 and Gus Dauka, 12. The winners led at halfime, 33-21. Chaffee hit 16 for the losers.

George Hale fired in 25 points to lead his team to a 70-36 triumph over Don Hildebrand's quartet. Joe Clement added 21 while Robert Owen had 13 and Jack Gallagher, 11. Hildebrand's 13 points led he losers.

Leading the Adkins squad to victory, 62-42, over Jim Tice's quartet, was Gary Weekley with 26 points, while Don Hague had 23. Tom Parsons and Jim George had 15 and 13 points, respectively, for the losers.

Jack Bailey scored 25 points to spark his team in a 61-49 victory over Larry Guy's squad. Guy led his outfit with 22 points.

Ohio's 40th High School Cage Classic Unfolds Today

Title Games Set Saturday In Columbus

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 40th high school basketball tournament began today, and two of the eight finalists were only two games away from the title.

Afternoon games, in Class A, sent Beverly Fort Frye (26-0) against Berlin Hiland (25-2), and defending champion Ayersville (27-0) against New Lebanon Dixie (25-1). The winners meet Saturday for the championship of the 500 smaller schools.

Tonight's Class AA frays called for two-time champion Cleveland East Tech (23-0) to meet Lima Senior (14-7) and Hamilton Taft (25-0) to go against Canton Lincoln (21-3).

While the capital city buzzed with incoming fans Thursday night, the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Association transacted business at its annual meeting.

The mentors awarded the fifth annual North-South All-Star game to Newark for next June 16, named Lee Himmeger of Ayersville and Harold Andreas of Cuyahoga Falls to coach the North team, and Carl Hamill of Beverly Fort Frye and Marvin McCollum of Hamilton Taft as heads of the Rebel contingent.

Himmeger and McCollum were named coaches of the year in their divisions in The Associated Press poll.

Eigh tof the 11 players for each squad also were named, along with eigh alternates for each. One player was selected from each of the 16 districts. The other three for each squad will be picked by the head coaches, the game sponsors and from the All-Ohio teams.

Named to the squads were:

North: Neil Brayton, Youngstown Liberty; Wilson Graham, Cleveland East Tech; Bruce Moore, Akron Central; Bill Gribble, Canton Lincoln; Levi Davis, Steubenville; Ben Cooper, Mansfield St. Peter; Dan Neff, Ayersville; Bob Gunn, Lima Senior. Alternates: Chick Campbell, Atwater; Wynn Phall, Brecksville; Norman Curry, Akron Hower; Dick Snyder, North Canton; Terry Schwartzwalder, Dover; Gilbert Ray, Mansfield Senior; Jim Myers, Defiance; Ted Keysor, Buckland.

South: Bob Keglow, Graham Local; Tom Watson, Centerburg; Steve Polinsky, Shadyside; Dave Anderson, Nelsonville; John Cummings, Hillsboro; Henry Burlong, Dayton Roosevelt; Dean Lampros, Columbus Eastmoor; Marvin Gregory, Wilmington. Alternates: Chris Roberts, Xenia, Bill Joos, Lancaster Fenwick; Jack Clark, Beverly Fort Frye; Wayne Poston, Athens; Bill Parker, Portsmouth; Glenn Barker, Middletown; Tom Rathburn, Ashville; Bob Willett, Reading.

Paul Walker of Middletown, who has served the coaches as secretary-treasurer for 10 years, was nominated for the post again, along with Fred Heischman of Columbus West. The latter also was named director of the all - star clinic to be held in connection with the North-South game at Newark. Nominated for second vice president, for next October's annual election, were C. Norris Simpson of Hicksville and Don Heft of Pickerington.

W. J. McConnell, state commissioner, thanked the coaches for supporting the state association in its recent legal tangle resulting from a one-year suspension of Canton McKinley on charges of undue influence in the transfer of a couple of Portsmouth players to the Bulldog roster. The Ohio Supreme Court, in a Wednesday decision, was unanimous in its decision backing the state association, and McConnell said:

"The Supreme Court decision has done more for Ohio high school athletics than anything that has occured in the last 30 years."

Majors Regain ABL East Lead

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Majors regained first place in the Eastern Division of the second half American Basketball League race Thursday night, but the top rung now seems to be meaningless.

A tourney involving Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, New York San Francisco and Hawaii opening in Pittsburgh next Thursday, March 29, will decide what team will meet the Kansas City Steers for the league championship. The Steers won the first half playoff championship and clinched the second half Western Division crown more than a week ago. The tourney details will be settled at a Chicago meeting Saturday.

Chicago ousted Cleveland from first place in the East by whipping Pittsburgh 97-91 after New York had upset Cleveland 100-98 in a doubleheader at Pittsburgh. San Francisco nipped Hawaii 103-102 at San Francisco in the other scheduled game.

★ ★ ★ Wilt Bags 56, Philly Faces Celts In Finals ★ ★ ★

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain has put the Philadelphia Warriors into the National Basketball Association Eastern Division final playoffs at Boston Saturday but a big lift came from a little guy—Guy Rodgers.

"I think Chamberlain played a great game, 56 points and 35 rebounds," said coach Frank McGuire of the Warriors after they had defeated Syracuse 121-104 Thursday night to take the best-of-five semifinal series, 3-2.

"But we got a tremendous lift from Guy Rodgers," added the Warriors' coach. "He got 15 points and played excellent defense."

"Chamberlain's effort was unbelievable," said McGuire of the big star who established six new playoff records Thursday night, including individual scoring for one game. His 56 points surpassed his own mark of 53 set against the Nats here in 1960.

Rodgers' 6-foot former Temple star, had been in a shooting slump in the previous four games.

The Warriors took the first two games from Syracuse, which had beaten them three in a row last year but then the Nats came back to win two in a row.

The other records Chamberlain established included most field goals attempted (48); most foul shots attempted (22); most field goals attempted one half (25); most field goals attempted one quarter (14); and most free throws attempted one quarter (11).

The ninth running of the $100,000-added John B. Campbell, Maryland's richest handicap, is the main attraction in thoroughbred racing Saturday and 14 horses from all sections of the country are scheduled to clash at Bowie in what could be a thriller.

The probable favorite is Leonard P. Sasso's Globemaster, one of the leading 3-year-old colts of 1961, who will carry top weight of 120 pounds in the mile and one-sixteenth gallop.

Globemaster, acquired as a yearling at the Saratoga sales for $80,000, is returning to major competition after finishing unplaced in the Royal Poinciana Handicap at Hialeah. He suffered an eye injury and tuned up at Bowie last week with an easy victory. His big scores in 1961 included the Wood Memorial, Saranac handicap, and Arlington Classic.

Robert Lehman's Ambiopoise, third back of Yorky and Katherine Price's Carry Back in Hialeah's $100,000 Widener, is second high weight for the Campbell with 119 pounds.

Three horses are next with 117 pounds, Calumet's Beau Prince, Ogden Phipps' Hitting Away, and Ben Weiner and Bill Resseguet's Orleans Doge. George D. Widener's Yorktown, who beat Carry Back in the New Orleans Handicap March 3, has 116.

Griffith 16-5 Choice To Lift Paret's Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Challenger Emile Griffith, seeking to regain the welterweight boxing championship he lost to Benny (Kid) Paret, is a 16-5 favorite over the titleholder for their third title fight Saturday night.

The 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden, which finds the wearer of the crown an unusually heavy underdog, will be nationally televised (by ABC) starting at 10 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Griffith, 24, from the Virgin Islands now living in New York, won the title by stopping Paret in the 13th round last April at Miami Beach. Paret took it back Sept. 30.

Since their last fight, Griffith has fought three times, knocking out Stanford Bulla and outpointing Isaac Logart and Johnny Torres.

Paret, 25, a Cuban, took a crack at Gene Fullmer's portion of the middleweight title, but lost by a knockout in the 10th round. A seven-year ring campaigner, Paret has a record of 34 wins, 11 losses and 3 draws. Griffith is 28-3-0 for four years as a pro.

Fight Results

Canton Deep In Gloom After McKinley's Ban

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—This hotbed of football—the birthplace of pro football and its Hall of Fame shrine—still was deep in gloom today over the grid ban against Canton McKinley High School.

The Bulldogs, an Ohio scholastic powerhouse for 68 years, were suspended for the 1962 season last Oct. 14 by the Ohio High School Athletic Association for obtaining the transfer of two players from distant Portsmouth through the offer of a job to their stepfather.

The death knell sounded Wednesday when McKinley's long court fight ended in the Ohio Supreme Court. Six justices voted to uphold the edict of the OHSAA, an association of 933 high schools.

Dr. Gordon G. Humbert, Canton schools superintendent, said Thursday night the city's overall athletic program would be curtailed.

McKinley had grid profits of $43,000 last season. The Canton high school fund—in which Lehman, Timken and Lincoln high schools also shared—stands to be more than $50,000 poorer this year. McKinley had supported itself and the other three schools, as well as the bands and debating groups.

"We hope to study the court's action to determine if there are any other legal steps we may take," Dr. Humbert said. "However, we must prepare to effect economy measures in the programs that formerly were supported by the athletic fund."

The blow was a bitter one to Pete Ankney, McKinley's 29-year-old football coach hired last season to revive the school's slipping fortunes. Ankney said he will start an intramural program to keep up interest.

The court's action has an effect to some degree on the economy of this city of 115,000. Financially hurt will be local sports equipment stores, concessions, printing firms and restaurants and motels—all dependong on big-time football.

Canton's long-time foes are at Massillon, eight miles west. It has played the Bulldogs all but two years since 1894 and figures to lose about $22,000 in gate receipts because the final game will not be staged against McKinley.

Just after the turn of the century the Canton Bulldogs and the Massillon Tigers gave life to professional football, which led later to the founding of the National Football League. Men like Knute Rockne, Jim Thorpe, Gus Darias, Lou Little, Jock Sutherland, Red Salmon and Willie Heston played and coached at Massillon and Canton.

In the 1930s, the coaching of Paul Brown brought national renown to Massillon High School. It also shot Brown up the coaching ladder.

2 Youngsters Take Lead In Pro Golf Play

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Two strong youngsters with similar sounding names and identical desires—to grab some of the big paychecks on the pro golf circuit—are off and running neck and neck in the $50,000 Doral Country Club Tournament.

They're Bobby Nichols, a brawny, 25-year-old who is one of golf's longest hitters, and Jack Nicklaus, 22, a two-time U.S. amateur champion just beginning to make his mark in the professional ranks.

Going into today's second 18-hole round, the two young men were tied for the lead with 3-under-par scores of 69. Strung out behind them were 167 other golfers, including virtually every top pro in action.

Nichols, in his third year on the tour, won over $20,000 last year, but first prizes always had eluded him until he finally won the St. Petersburg Open Monday.

Nicklaus, a competitor in only nine pro tournaments and winner of none, was just as ambitious and matched Nichols shot for shot.

Their lead was precarious going into the second round. Only a stroke behind at 70 were Arnold Palmer, the year's third biggest money winner and the champion at Palm Springs and Phoenix; Tommy Jacobs, who won at San Diego; Bob Goalby, No. 10 in the money ranks; Billy Casper Jr., Mason Rudolph and Jimmy Powell.

At 71 were Phil Rodgers, Sam Snead, Tommy Bolt, Peter Mazur, Paul Bondeson and Bob Verwey.

Ben Hogan, making one of his now-rare tourney appearances, took a 74 and Gary Player, last year's big money winner, a 76.

Rangers Nip Bruins, 4-3

BOSTON (AP) — Barrel-chested Gump Worsley got a puck in the eye, the Rangers got a scare and player-coach Doug Harvey felt nothing but more pressure.

"We damned near blew it," exclaimed goalie Worsley after Thursday night's 4-3 National Hockey League squeaker over last place Boston.

In effect, it made the "magic number" one point for New York to clinch the final Stanely Cup playoff berth over Detroit.

Said Harvey: "As far as I'm concerned this brings the whole season to a showdown with our only remaining game at home Sunday night with Chicago."

If Detroit wins both its remaining games at Toronto Saturday night and at home against Montreal Sunday, the Rangers will need a tie. That would deadlock New York and the Red Wings with 63 points and identical 25-32-13 records. In such a case the playoff spot goes to the club with the most goals scored. New York holds a 10-goal bulge.

Montreal defeated Toronto 4-1 in the other game Thursday night.

Ohio's 40th High School Cage Classic Unfolds Today

Title Games Set Saturday In Columbus

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 40th high school basketball tournament began today, and two of the eight finalists were only two games away from the title.

Afternoon games, in Class A, sent Beverly Fort Frye (26-0) against Berlin Hiland (25-2), and defending champion Ayersville (27-0) against New Lebanon Dixie (25-1). The winners meet Saturday for the championship of the 500 smaller schools.

Tonight's Class AA frays called for two-time champion Cleveland East Tech (23-0) to meet Lima Senior (14-7) and Hamilton Taft (25-0) to go against Canton Lincoln (21-3).

While the capital city buzzed with incoming fans Thursday night, the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Association transacted business at its annual meeting.

The mentors awarded the fifth annual North-South All-Star game to Newark for next June 16, named Lee Himmeger of Ayersville and Harold Andreas of Cuyahoga Falls to coach the North team, and Carl Hamill of Beverly Fort Frye and Marvin McCollum of Hamilton Taft as heads of the Rebel contingent.

Himmeger and McCollum were named coaches of the year in their divisions in The Associated Press poll.

Eigh tof the 11 players for each squad also were named, along with eigh alternates for each. One player was selected from each of the 16 districts. The other three for each squad will be picked by the head coaches, the game sponsors and from the All-Ohio teams.

Named to the squads were:

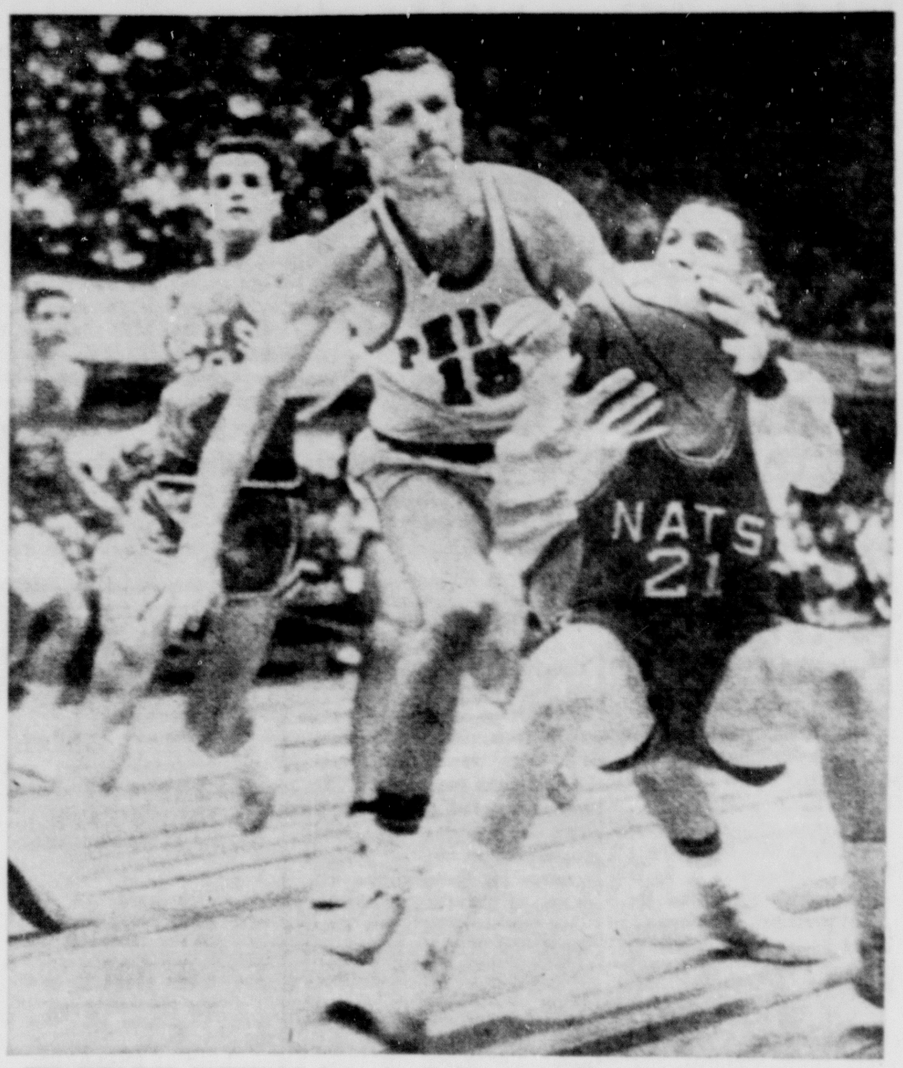
North: Neil Brayton, Youngstown Liberty; Wilson Graham, Cleveland East Tech; Bruce Moore, Akron Central; Bill Gribble, Canton Lincoln; Levi Davis, Steubenville; Ben Cooper, Mansfield St. Peter; Dan Neff, Ayersville; Bob Gunn, Lima Senior. Alternates: Chick Campbell, Atwater; Wynn Phall, Brecksville; Norman Curry, Akron Hower; Dick Snyder, North Canton; Terry Schwartzwalder, Dover; Gilbert Ray, Mansfield Senior; Jim Myers, Defiance; Ted Keysor, Buckland.

South: Bob Keglow, Graham Local; Tom Watson, Centerburg; Steve Polinsky, Shadyside; Dave Anderson, Nelsonville; John Cummings, Hillsboro; Henry Burlong, Dayton Roosevelt; Dean Lampros, Columbus Eastmoor; Marvin Gregory, Wilmington. Alternates: Chris Roberts, Xenia, Bill Joos, Lancaster Fenwick; Jack Clark, Beverly Fort Frye; Wayne Poston, Athens; Bill Parker, Portsmouth; Glenn Barker, Middletown; Tom Rathburn, Ashville; Bob Willett, Reading.

Paul Walker of Middletown, who has served the coaches as secretary-treasurer for 10 years, was nominated for the post again, along with Fred Heischman of Columbus West. The latter also was named director of the all - star clinic to be held in connection with the North-South game at Newark. Nominated for second vice president, for next October's annual election, were C. Norris Simpson of Hicksville and Don Heft of Pickerington.

W. J. McConnell, state commissioner, thanked the coaches for supporting the state association in its recent legal tangle resulting from a one-year suspension of Canton McKinley on charges of undue influence in the transfer of a couple of Portsmouth players to the Bulldog roster. The Ohio Supreme Court, in a Wednesday decision, was unanimous in its decision backing the state association, and McConnell said:

"The Supreme Court decision has done more for Ohio high school athletics than anything that has occured in the last 30 years."



THE SYRACUSE NATIONALS' Larry Costello (21) applies the brakes too fast and is about to assume a sitting position in the first half of their final game of a best-of-five playoff series with the Warriors Friday at Philadelphia. The Warriors' Tom Gola (15) and Nats' Dave Gambee (20) trail the play. (UPI Telephoto)

Majors Regain ABL East Lead

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Majors regained first place in the Eastern Division of the second half American Basketball League race Thursday night, but the top rung now seems to be meaningless.

A tourney involving Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, New York San Francisco and Hawaii opening in Pittsburgh next Thursday, March 29, will decide what team will meet the Kansas City Steers for the league championship. The Steers won the first half playoff championship and clinched the second half Western Division crown more than a week ago. The tourney details will be settled at a Chicago meeting Saturday.

Chicago ousted Cleveland from first place in the East by whipping Pittsburgh 97-91 after New York had upset Cleveland 100-98 in a doubleheader at Pittsburgh. San Francisco nipped Hawaii 103-102 at San Francisco in the other scheduled game.

Wilt Bags 56, Philly Faces Celts In Finals

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain has put the Philadelphia Warriors into the National Basketball Association Eastern Division final playoffs at Boston Saturday but a big lift came from a little guy—Guy Rodgers.

"I think Chamberlain played a great game, 56 points and 35 rebounds," said coach Frank McGuire of the Warriors after they had defeated Syracuse 121-104 Thursday night to take the best-of-five semifinal series, 3-2.

"But we got a tremendous lift from Guy Rodgers," added the Warriors' coach. "He got 15 points and played excellent defense."

"Chamberlain's effort was unbelievable," said McGuire of the big star who established six new playoff records Thursday night, including individual scoring for one game. His 56 points surpassed his own mark of 53 set against the Nats here in 1960.

Rodgers' 6-foot former Temple star, had been in a shooting slump in the previous four games.

The Warriors took the first two games from Syracuse, which had beaten them three in a row last year but then the Nats came back to win two in a row.

The other records Chamberlain established included most field goals attempted (48); most foul shots attempted (22); most field goals attempted one half (25); most field goals attempted one quarter (14); and most free throws attempted one quarter (11).

Fallout Due From Soviet Test Series

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bulk of the fallout from last fall's Soviet nuclear test series should begin to come down from the stratosphere any time now.

But the Public Health Service says it's highly unlikely there will be any need to take protective measures to reduce human intake of radioactive strontium 90, the fallout material of greatest potential concern from the health standpoint.

Strontium 90 is chemically akin to calcium and concentrates in the bones, where it is capable of causing bone cancer or leukemia. The radioactive material can be on vegetables or grains eaten directly by man or can pass along indirectly through grass eaten by cows, then into the milk or meat.

While the settling of the fallout is expected to last for several months—reaching its maximum in the rains of late April or early May—the bulk of the debris in the stratosphere may come down in two steps, part this spring and the rest in the spring of 1963.

And, some of the debris may fall gradually over seven or eight successive springs.

This was the situation as obtained in interviews with Public Health Service and Weather Bureau officials. The views are a followup to the forecasts of last fall and winter that most of the debris from the Soviet tests—that is, the component originally spread high in the stratosphere—would not begin to come down until this spring.

BARTHOLOMEW

"And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, . ."

—Luke VI:13,14

Bartholomew was one of the Apostles whose life story has been lost to us during the centuries that have passed since he was first called by Jesus to be one of the Twelve.

A number of authorities believe he is the same person as Nathanael, mentioned in the Gospel of John, (I:45-51).

This opinion is based on the fact that Bartholomew is not a proper name, but merely served to identify him as the son of Tolmai.

Moreover, the name Bartholomew is never mentioned in the Gospel according to John. But in the latter Evangelist's list of Apostles, Nathanael is the name given in the place accorded to Bartholomew in the other three Gospels.

Scholars reason, therefore, that John may have referred to him by his given name, where the other three Gospel writers followed the Hebrew custom of calling him the son of Tolmai.

It was Philip who first told Nathanael of Jesus. And, John relates, Nathanael replied somewhat contemptuously, "Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

But upon first seeing Jesus, Nathanael followed Him as readily as the other disciples, declaring, "Rabbi, thou art the Son of God."

According to traditions of the early Church, Bartholomew became a missionary to the East, preaching in Mesopotamia, Persia, Egypt, and Armenia.

Legends say he was martyred in Albanopolis, Armenia. The manner of his death is variously reported as having been crucifixion, beheading, and being flayed alive.

The immortal Michaelangelo apparently inclined to the latter story, for in his famous painting, "The Last Judgment," a flayed Bartholomew is shown holding his own skin in his hand.

Wage Boosts End 2 Strikes

Potters at sanitary ware plants in Indiana and Pennsylvania have ended strikes and gone back to work with new contracts calling for pay increases and other benefits, the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

Local 72 has signed a new agreement with the Peerless Pottery, Inc., at Evansville, Ind., granting a 7-cent hike for the first year and a 5-cent boost in the second year.

Other concessions include an improved health and welfare program and the addition of Veterans Day as a paid holiday, the IBOP said. The strike began on Jan. 30.

Local 313 has signed a new two-year contract with Alliance Ware, Inc., at Somerset, Pa., providing for boosts for six cents an hour on base rates for each year. It also calls for inequity adjustment rates ranging from 3 to 5 cents an hour in various departments.

The contract specifies extra sick pay, pay for employes serving on juries, union security and seniority clauses.

The Pennsylvania potters went on strike Feb. 2 after a stalmate in contract negotiations.

Talks Recessed Until April 5 On Gas Rate Dispute

CLEVELAND (AP) — Negotiations between the East Ohio Gas Co. and the city of Cleveland on a rate increase have been recessed until April 5.

Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze and A. H. Forbes, East Ohio vice president, said Thursday the company had brought in a new set of figures, which made projections of income and operating expenses into 1963 and 1964.

Both sides said James M. Honaker, the city's rate expert, needed time to study the figures. His analysis will be presented to the City Council Utilities Committee April 5.

Unofficial reports were that East Ohio suggested a new offer to bring in $2 million in additional revenues for 1963 and $2 million more for 1964—on top of the city's $6.3 million proposal.

East Ohio originally sought a rate increase of $34 million, but came down to $20 million, which would boost the average household gas bill about 15½ per cent.

Cleveland is spearheading the fight of several Northeastern Ohio cities against the East Ohio request. Representatives of Massillon and Canton, who attended Thursday's private talks, were reported to be dead set against increasing the offer to the utility.

Youth Sentenced For Buying Beer

A 19-year-old youth was sentenced to jail by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon Thursday for obtaining beer for two city boys who were also jailed and fined.

The youth, 19, was given a six-month term at the County Jail — with five months suspended — after he admitted taking two city boys, both 15, into taverns and getting beer for them. He was placed on probation for two years.

One of the younger boys was fined $20 and jailed for 15 days, and the other was fined $10 and jailed five days.

Judge Tobin said the Ohio Department of Liquor Control was represented at the hearing and citations are expected against the taverns involved.

Two former city boys, 16 and 15, were placed on probation for shop lifting here March 3. The boys, who now reside at Salem, were ordered to make $20 restitution.

New Proposal Given On Severance Pay

CLEVELAND (AP) — Westinghouse Air Brake Co. has given union negotiators a new proposal on severance pay for service at the rock drill plant, which is moving to Sidney.

The union membership is to consider the new offer at a meeting Saturday, according to federal mediator Omar T. White.

The original company offer for plant workers was $16 yearly for each 15 years' service, in addition to $68 severance pay for each 24 years' service, as provided in the contract. This offer was rejected.

William R. Perrien, president of the union, said the Rock Drill Independent Association wants $25 extra for each year of seniority up to 24 years.

Faces Grand Jury

CLEVELAND (AP) — Edward McGhee, 22, of Cleveland has been bound to the federal grand jury on a charge of robbing a Cleveland Trust Co. East Side branch of $749 Tuesday. The FBI said McGhee also admitted robbing another Cleveland Trust branch last month of $2,900.

'Herculean' Thieves Take Backhoe Bucket

The bucket is valued at $191, Adams said.

Fallout Due From Soviet Test Series

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bulk of the fallout from last fall's Soviet nuclear test series should begin to come down from the stratosphere any time now.

But the Public Health Service says it's highly unlikely there will be any need to take protective measures to reduce human intake of radioactive strontium 90, the fallout material of greatest potential concern from the health standpoint.

Strontium 90 is chemically akin to calcium and concentrates in the bones, where it is capable of causing bone cancer or leukemia. The radioactive material can be on vegetables or grains eaten directly by man or can pass along indirectly through grass eaten by cows, then into the milk or meat.

While the settling of the fallout is expected to last for several months—reaching its maximum in the rains of late April or early May—the bulk of the debris in the stratosphere may come down in two steps, part this spring and the rest in the spring of 1963.

And, some of the debris may fall gradually over seven or eight successive springs.

This was the situation as obtained in interviews with Public Health Service and Weather Bureau officials. The views are a followup to the forecasts of last fall and winter that most of the debris from the Soviet tests—that is, the component originally spread high in the stratosphere—would not begin to come down until this spring.

Biggest Ever Accorded Visitor

Jackie Receives Ovation In Capital Of Pakistan

By EUGENE LEVIN

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy tried out her new Pakistani horse today and then received in this capital city the biggest welcome it has ever given a foreign visitor.

Almost everyone in Rawalpindi, population 400,000, turned out to greet America's First Lady.

Crowds jammed the streets waving thousands of paper flags and placards saying "Long live Mrs. Kennedy."

Drum and bagpipe bands serenaded her at various points along the six-mile, flag-covered route from airport to city.

It was a thrilling welcome like many Mrs. Kennedy has received in other Indian and Pakistani cities since arriving 12 days ago.

But this morning the 32-year-old First Lady had the experience of riding Sardar—Chief—the bay gelding given her Thursday in Lahore by President Mohammed Ayub Khan.

She rode the horse for 10 minutes on the lawn of the governor's house in Lahore before taking Ayub's plane to Rawalpindi.

Mrs. Kennedy tried the horse about the time she was due in Rawalpindi. Her arrival time had been put off three hours so she could catch up on her sleep.

Her original schedule called for a visit to Taxila, one of the world's great archaeological sites with ruins of 2,400-year-old cities. But two days ago a White House spokesman said the trip to Taxila was canceled because Mrs. Kennedy was travel weary and unable to make the 40-mile round trip between Taxila and Rawalpindi.

The cancellation of Taxila left only an appearance at the garden party being given by Ayub to mark Pakistan Day, the country's Fourth of July.

Mrs. Nicholson, president, presided. There was a discussion on serving several dinners in the future. A special offering was taken for a project in Atlantic City. Flowers were sent to three shut-in members. A white elephant sale was postponed until the next meeting.

Hostesses were Mrs. Paul Tice and Mrs. Merle Fagan. Next meeting will be April 18. Mrs. George Billie and Mrs. Hogue will be co-hostesses.

Loaded Bakery Truck Upsets In Collision

A loaded Keystone Baking Co. truck, en route to East Liverpool, upset early this morning on the East Liverpool-Midland Rd., about a mile east of the state line, in which an East Liverpool man's pickup truck also was damaged.

Damage to the bakery truck operated by Harry Zindren of New Brighton R. D. 2 was estimated at more than $400 while about $200 damage was caused to the pickup truck of Stephen M. Mick of Shadyside Ave., Asst. Chief Mike Haydin of Ohio Township said.

Haydin said Mick was headed toward Midland about 6:45 a. m. and was following a car which slowed to enter a service station.

Mick slammed on his brakes but the truck swerved to the left and hit the rear of the Keystone truck, which was passing. The impact caused the bakery truck to go off the road over a culvert, hit an embankment and turn on its side, Asst. Chief Haydin said.

Biggest Ever Accorded Visitor

Jackie Receives Ovation In Capital Of Pakistan

By EUGENE LEVIN

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy tried out her new Pakistani horse today and then received in this capital city the biggest welcome it has ever given a foreign visitor.

Almost everyone in Rawalpindi, population 400,000, turned out to greet America's First Lady.

Crowds jammed the streets waving thousands of paper flags and placards saying "Long live Mrs. Kennedy."

Drum and bagpipe bands serenaded her at various points along the six-mile, flag-covered route from airport to city.

It was a thrilling welcome like many Mrs. Kennedy has received in other Indian and Pakistani cities since arriving 12 days ago.

But this morning the 32-year-old First Lady had the experience of riding Sardar—Chief—the bay gelding given her Thursday in Lahore by President Mohammed Ayub Khan.

She rode the horse for 10 minutes on the lawn of the governor's house in Lahore before taking Ayub's plane to Rawalpindi.

Mrs. Kennedy tried the horse about the time she was due in Rawalpindi. Her arrival time had been put off three hours so she could catch up on her sleep.

Her original schedule called for a visit to Taxila, one of the world's great archaeological sites with ruins of 2,400-year-old cities. But two days ago a White House spokesman said the trip to Taxila was canceled because Mrs. Kennedy was travel weary and unable to make the 40-mile round trip between Taxila and Rawalpindi.

The cancellation of Taxila left only an appearance at the garden party being given by Ayub to mark Pakistan Day, the country's Fourth of July.

Loaded Bakery Truck Upsets In Collision

A loaded Keystone Baking Co. truck, en route to East Liverpool, upset early this morning on the East Liverpool-Midland Rd., about a mile east of the state line, in which an East Liverpool man's pickup truck also was damaged.

Damage to the bakery truck operated by Harry Zindren of New Brighton R. D. 2 was estimated at more than $400 while about $200 damage was caused to the pickup truck of Stephen M. Mick of Shadyside Ave., Asst. Chief Mike Haydin of Ohio Township said.

Haydin said Mick was headed toward Midland about 6:45 a. m. and was following a car which slowed to enter a service station.

Mick slammed on his brakes but the truck swerved to the left and hit the rear of the Keystone truck, which was passing. The impact caused the bakery truck to go off the road over a culvert, hit an embankment and turn on its side, Asst. Chief Haydin said.

Junior Editors Quiz on CATS

QUESTION: Why does a cat arch its back when startled or afraid?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: A cat may look fierce to a tiny mouse, but to a large dog a cat is just a soft little animal. Therefore, when a cat suspects he is in danger, he arches his back and his hair stands on end. In this way he looks larger and tougher than he really is. It seems to work for the cat. Perhaps it is the sudden surprise when an animal sees this gentle- looking creature suddenly turn into a tense, strangely shaped fighter. Or perhaps the other animals really do believe that the cat has grown larger before their eyes. At any rate, the cat continues to arch his body and stiffen his hair whenever he feels he is threatened, and the other animals continue to be taken aback by this and often run away. This helps the cat to avoid fights which he is quite likely to lose. Even if the threatening animal decides to stay and fight anyway, the cat has gained an advantage. An animal would not fear a soft ball of fur, but he is bound to be more respectful of a stiff, fierce-looking animal.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: If you have a cat, watch him closely when he is approached by something unfamiliar. Even a harmless animal, such as a rabbit or a turtle, will often provoke your cat to arch his back. Watch other animals and see if they do anything unusual when they are threatened.

A Prophet Finds Honor At Home

Isaac Kleinerman is beginning to feel like a prophet who finally became honored in his own country. As producer of the highly successful CBS "Twentieth Century" he has the distinction of being associated with the most durable documentary series on TV.

Hal Humphrey

Kleinerman always had faith in documentaries for TV, but it took a lot of selling to convince the program vice presidents.

"I still remember the trouble that the late Henry Solomon and I had getting money from NBC to put together 'Victory at Sea,' which, incidentally, hasn't been off the air since it was first telecast in 1952," Kleinerman says, without bitterness.

-:-

HE WAS GLAD to move over to CBS, where five years ago he joined Burton Benjamin as associate producer to do "Twentieth Century."

"CBS always has had a greater awareness of the need for news and information programs," Kleinerman reports. "There was no FCC pressure when 'Twentieth Century' was conceived at CBS. On the other hand, NBC didn't really do much until Huntley and Brinkley did it for the network. Now, of course, NBC has taken off in a big way."

Kleinerman's passionate desire to keep people informed has almost turned him into a schizophrenic. "Twentieth Century" started as a series recapturing major historical events.

-:-

"BUT SO MUCH is happening in the world now, I feel it is my duty to bring as much of it to TV as possible. This season we are doing 13 historical and 13 contemporary shows, and I believe the trend will be toward even more contemporaries," Kleinerman says.

He believes much too little has been done about Canada and Mexico.

"Most of us don't know that there is considerable ill will on the part of Canadians toward us, and I think it may be time we

With more and more TV documentary reporters roaming the found out why this is," he says. globe, there soon may be a need for traffic regulations. Kleinerman was disappointed to see David Brinkley doing the story of Cuban refugees in Miami on his NBC Journal.

"I had been working on that idea, and we may still do it," he says, implying that perhaps Brinkley left a few strings unraveled.

KLEINERMAN has seven researchers working on ideas constantly and claims that never once has the network or sponsor wanted any show dropped or changed.

"Prudential has been our sponsor from the first, and I think it's important to mention that CBS made no discount arrangements to Prudential. I know there are not many programs which can make that claim," says Kleinerman, with fatherly pride.

He also is proud of the fact that 166 CBS affiliates carry "Twentieth Century," or nearly the full network. This is particularly gratifying because the program is slotted in what is called "option time." This means an affiliated station is not compelled to air "Twentieth Century" unless it chooses to.

SO FAR this season, the show which kicked up the most controversy in the series was the one about Tasheo Yashikawa, the Japanese spy who cased Pearl Harbor for the sneak attack.

"We got all kinds of angry mail, wanting to know why this man was allowed in the U.S. now and criticizing us for putting him on. It proves again that people don't listen too carefully, because right at the beginning of the program Walter Cronkite told how Yashikawa was now a diplomat and was guaranteed diplomatic immunity," Kleinerman says.

Cronkite also has been with "Twentieth Century" from its inception, and although he tosses no kisses, his identification with Prudential is almost as solid as Dinah Shore's was with Chevrolet.

-:-

WHEN QUESTIONS from the floor were solicited at the CBS "Years of Crisis" telecast from the Waldorf Astoria at the end of the year, Groucho Marx got a big laugh from the assemblage by asking, "Is Prudential all that Cronkite says it is?"

Sponsored documentaries apparently are on TV to stay.

McElroy Visits City Between Addresses

Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, Democratic candidate for governor, paid a brief visit to City Hall Thursday afternoon between speeches at Lisbon yesterday noon and at Salem last night.

Unable to speak above a whisper because of a cold, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet was replaced as official "greeter" by Safety-Service Director Robert Owen. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate. Councilman Floyd Murray and James V. Flasco, city Democratic chairman, also were in the local group that conferred with McElroy.

The attorney general was accompanied by Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, and Robert Blackburn, also of Columbiana, a member of McElroy's staff.

McElroy Lists 6-Point Plan For Development Of State

SALEM, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy has listed a six-point program for industrial and economic development if he beats Gov. Michael V. DiSalle for the Democratic nomination and becomes governor.

In a speech at a Salem Democratic rally Thursday night, McElroy asserted that in the past five years Ohio has dropped from second to fifth among states in producing manufactured goods. "This downward trend has continued for the past three years," he contended.

McElroy said these were his six points:

"1. I will go to Washington to get Ohio's fair share of defense costs. I will sit on the White House door steps if necessary until we get our share.

"2. I will promote an expansion of our research facilities in state universities to attract space and missile age industries.

"3. I will create a governor's advisory committee of top-notch business, labor and industrial leaders to plan a program of industrial development.

"4. I will tour the United States in an effort to sell expanding business on locating in Ohio.

"5. I will work with all local communities in an effort to set them moving on local programs designed to attract new industries and provide more jobs for our people.

"6. I will work with both large and small ports to plan a unified Lake Erie port promotion program directed to Europe and Washington, so that Ohio ports will get their share of income from trade, from aid and defense cargoes."

KLEINERMAN has seven researchers working on ideas constantly and claims that never once has the network or sponsor wanted any show dropped or changed.

"Prudential has been our sponsor from the first, and I think it's important to mention that CBS made no discount arrangements to Prudential. I know there are not many programs which can make that claim," says Kleinerman, with fatherly pride.

He also is proud of the fact that 166 CBS affiliates carry "Twentieth Century," or nearly the full network. This is particularly gratifying because the program is slotted in what is called "option time." This means an affiliated station is not compelled to air "Twentieth Century" unless it chooses to.

SO FAR this season, the show which kicked up the most controversy in the series was the one about Tasheo Yashikawa, the Japanese spy who cased Pearl Harbor for the sneak attack.

"We got all kinds of angry mail, wanting to know why this man was allowed in the U.S. now and criticizing us for putting him on. It proves again that people don't listen too carefully, because right at the beginning of the program Walter Cronkite told how Yashikawa was now a diplomat and was guaranteed diplomatic immunity," Kleinerman says.

Cronkite also has been with "Twentieth Century" from its inception, and although he tosses no kisses, his identification with Prudential is almost as solid as Dinah Shore's was with Chevrolet.

-:-

WHEN QUESTIONS from the floor were solicited at the CBS "Years of Crisis" telecast from the Waldorf Astoria at the end of the year, Groucho Marx got a big laugh from the assemblage by asking, "Is Prudential all that Cronkite says it is?"

Sponsored documentaries apparently are on TV to stay.

McElroy Visits City Between Addresses

Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, Democratic candidate for governor, paid a brief visit to City Hall Thursday afternoon between speeches at Lisbon yesterday noon and at Salem last night.

Unable to speak above a whisper because of a cold, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet was replaced as official "greeter" by Safety-Service Director Robert Owen. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate. Councilman Floyd Murray and James V. Flasco, city Democratic chairman, also were in the local group that conferred with McElroy.

The attorney general was accompanied by Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, and Robert Blackburn, also of Columbiana, a member of McElroy's staff.

McElroy Lists 6-Point Plan For Development Of State

SALEM, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy has listed a six-point program for industrial and economic development if he beats Gov. Michael V. DiSalle for the Democratic nomination and becomes governor.

In a speech at a Salem Democratic rally Thursday night, McElroy asserted that in the past five years Ohio has dropped from second to fifth among states in producing manufactured goods. "This downward trend has continued for the past three years," he contended.

McElroy said these were his six points:

"1. I will go to Washington to get Ohio's fair share of defense costs. I will sit on the White House door steps if necessary until we get our share.

"2. I will promote an expansion of our research facilities in state universities to attract space and missile age industries.

"3. I will create a governor's advisory committee of top-notch business, labor and industrial leaders to plan a program of industrial development.

"4. I will tour the United States in an effort to sell expanding business on locating in Ohio.

"5. I will work with all local communities in an effort to set them moving on local programs designed to attract new industries and provide more jobs for our people.

"6. I will work with both large and small ports to plan a unified Lake Erie port promotion program directed to Europe and Washington, so that Ohio ports will get their share of income from trade, from aid and defense cargoes."
